

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1127

Introduced by Assembly Member Gabriel

February 20, 2025

An act relating to firearms.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL’S DIGEST

AB 1127, as introduced, Gabriel. Firearms: converter attachments.

Existing law defines a machine gun as any weapon that shoots, is designed to shoot, or can readily be restored to shoot, automatically more than one shot, without manual reloading, by a single function of the trigger. Existing law prohibits, among other things, the conversion of a firearm into a machine gun. A violation of this prohibition is punishable as a felony.

This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation regarding semi-automatic firearms that can be converted into automatic firearms by a converter attachment.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation regarding semi-automatic firearms that can be converted
- 3 into automatic firearms by a converter attachment.
