PRE-BIRTH SURRENDER OF RIGHTS
FINAL RELEASE FOR ADOPTION

NOTICE TO ALLEGED BIOLOGICAL FATHER:

This is an important legal document and by signing it, you are surrendering any and all of your rights, title, and claim to the child identified herein in this document, so as to facilitate the child's placement for adoption. You have the right to wait to execute a Surrender of Rights Final Release for Adoption after the child is born, but by signing this document, you are electing to surrender your rights prior to the birth of this child. Understand that you are signing this document under oath and that if you knowingly and willfully make a false statement in this document you will be guilty of the crime of false swearing. As explained below in paragraph 6, you have the right to revoke this surrender. You are to receive a copy of this document and as explained below have the right to withdraw your pre-birth surrender within ten days from the date you sign it. If you are at least 18 years of age, you may choose to waive that right so that this surrender will become effective immediately upon signing such a waiver. If you choose to waive the right to a ten-day revocation period, you must consult an attorney and make that choice in paragraph 6 below and execute a separate WAIVER OF RIGHT TO REVOKE SURRENDER OF RIGHTS at least 48 hours after the birth of the child.

STATE OF GEORGIA
COUNTY OF

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned officer duly authorized to administer oaths, (name of alleged biological father) who, after having been sworn, deposes and says as follows:

I, the undersigned, understand that I have been named by , the biological mother of the child expected to be born in (city) (county) (state) on or about the day of (month), (year), as the biological father or possible biological father of her child. I further understand that the biological mother wishes to place this child for adoption.
To the best of my knowledge and belief, the child has not been born as of the date I am signing this pre-birth surrender; however, if in fact the child has been born, this surrender shall have the same effect as if it were a surrender executed following the birth of the child.

3.
I understand that by signing this document I am not admitting that I am the biological father of this child, but if I am, I hereby agree that adoption is in this child's best interest. I consent to adoption of this child by any person individual chosen by the child's legal mother or by any public or private child-placing agency that places children without further notice to me. I expressly waive any other notice or service in any of the legal proceedings for the adoption of the child. I understand that I have the option to wait until after the child is born to execute a surrender of my rights (with a corresponding ten-day right of withdrawal revocation) and, further, that by executing this document I am electing instead to surrender my rights before the child's birth.

I further understand that execution of signing this document does not fully and finally terminate my rights and responsibilities until an order from a court of competent jurisdiction terminating my rights or a final order of adoption is entered. I understand that if the child is not adopted after I sign this document, legal proceedings can be brought to establish paternity, and I may become liable for financial obligations related to the birth and support of this child.

5.
I understand that I will receive a copy of this document after the witness and I have signed it and it has been notarized.

I understand that under Georgia law I have the unconditional right to a ten-day revocation period. I understand that if I am at least 18 years of age I also have the choice to waive the ten-day revocation period, thereby causing the pre-birth surrender of my rights to become final immediately upon signing a WAIVER OF RIGHT TO REVOKE SURRENDER OF RIGHTS.
Indicate your choice by signing ONE of the following statements (you may choose statement A or B):

A. ___________________ (Signature) I choose to RETAIN the unconditional right to a ten-day revocation period under Georgia law. I understand that certified mail cannot be used for mail delivery of the notice to revoke this pre-birth surrender. I understand that the ten days shall will be counted consecutively beginning with the day immediately following the date hereof; that, however; I sign this document; provided, however, that, if the tenth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, then the last day on which the this surrender may be withdrawn will revoked will be the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday; and that it may NOT be withdrawn thereafter. I understand that, if I deliver the notice to revoke this surrender in person, it must be delivered to ______________________________________ (name and address) not later than 5:00 P.M. eastern standard time or eastern daylight time, whichever is applicable, on the tenth day. I understand that I CANNOT revoke this surrender after that time.

become final immediately upon signing it and that thereafter this surrender cannot be revoked.

7.     is being adopted or who has been adopted, including, but not limited to, visitation with such child, contact with such child, sharing of information about such child, or sharing of information about birth relatives.
(3) In order to be an enforceable postadoption contact agreement, such agreement shall be in writing and signed by all of the parties to such agreement acknowledging their

(c) A postadoption contact agreement shall contain the following warnings in at least 14 point boldface type:

(1) After the entry of a decree for adoption, an adoption cannot be set aside due to the failure of an adopting parent, a birth biological parent, a birth relative, or the child to follow the terms of this agreement or a later change to this agreement; and

(2) A disagreement between the parties or litigation brought to enforce, terminate, or modify this agreement shall not affect the validity of the adoption and shall not serve as

"20-2-852.1. A local board of education that permits paternity or maternity time off for biological parents following the birth of a child shall, upon request, make such time off available for individuals adopting a child, in the same manner and utilizing the same type of leave. If the local board of education has established a policy providing time off for biological parents, that period of time shall be the minimum period of leave available for adoptive

"49-5-25.
(a) The department shall use its best efforts to cover all geographic regions of this state and reach all children in need of foster care and adoption services by entering into contracts with a diverse group of child-placing agencies. When making referrals for foster care or adoption services to child-placing agencies under contracts with the department, the department shall use its best efforts to refer services to a child-placing agency that is able to provide those services, considering the expertise and mission of that child-placing agency. A child-placing agency may decide not to accept a referral for foster care or adoption services under a contract with the department based on the child-placing agency's mission as evidenced by its written policy, statement, or other document. If a child-placing agency declines to accept a referral, the department shall immediately refer those services to another child-placing agency. The department shall not take any adverse action against a child-placing agency or an organization that seeks to become a child-placing agency on the basis, wholly or partly, that such child-placing agency or organization has not accepted or will not accept a referral for foster care or adoption services that are not within the mission of such child-placing agency or organization as evidenced by its written policy, statement, or other document. For services not referred under a contract with the department, a child-placing agency may decline to perform any service that conflicts with the child-placing agency's mission as evidenced by its written policy, statement, or other document, and the department shall not take any adverse action against such child-placing agency for declining to perform such service.
(b) A person may assert a violation of this Code section as a claim against the department in any judicial or administrative proceeding or as a defense in any judicial or administrative proceeding. The defense of sovereign immunity is waived as to any such claim or defense brought in the courts of this state by an aggrieved child-placing agency under this Code section; provided, however, that sovereign immunity is not waived as to any claim for monetary relief, other than for attorney's fees or expenses of litigation that are included in or related to such claim or defense. A person who successfully asserts a claim or defense under this Code section against the department may obtain declaratory relief or injunctive relief."

a new article to read as follows:

immunity is not waived:

(1) As to any claim for monetary relief, other than for attorney's fees or expenses of litigation that are included in or related to such claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim; or

(2) As to any claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim seeking a declaratory judgment or injunctive relief related to a contract between a third party and the state or any political subdivision thereof."

SECTION 6.
This Act shall become effective on January 1, 2018.
