AN ACT

To amend chapter 173, RSMo, by adding thereto two new sections relating to student associations at public institutions of higher learning, with a penalty provision.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapter 173, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto two new sections, to be known as sections 173.1555 and 173.1556, to read as follows:

173.1555. As used in sections 173.1555 and 173.1556, the following terms mean:

(1) "Benefit", recognition, registration, the use of facilities of the public institution of higher learning for meetings or speaking purposes, and the use of channels of communication of the public institution of higher learning;

(2) "Public institution of higher learning", any state postsecondary educational institution governed or supervised by a board erected under chapter 172, 174, 175, or 178; a board of trustees of a community college; or any state board for any other technical school;

(3) "Religion" or "religious", includes all aspects of a religious belief or practice, regardless of whether compelled or central to a particular religion.

173.1556. 1. No public institution of higher learning shall take any action or enforce any policy that denies a religious student association any benefit available to any other student association or that discriminates against a religious student association with respect to such benefit, based on that association's requirement that its leaders or members adhere to the association's sincerely held religious beliefs, comply with the association's sincere religious practice requirements, comply with the association's sincere religious standards of conduct, or be committed to furthering the association's religious missions as
