AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to enacting the pension poaching prevention act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "pension poaching prevention act".

§ 2. Legislative findings and intent. Nationally, veterans and their family members are often subject to a practice commonly called pension poaching. This troubling practice, as described in recent reports from the Federal Trade Commission, the Federal Government Accountability Office, the United States Department of Veterans Affairs, and several other entities, generally target elderly or disabled veterans and their family members. Pension poaching involves dishonest financial planners, insurance agents, and other professionals luring veterans and their family members to pay substantial funds for veterans' benefits services that the offering entity is unqualified to provide and that can detrimentally impact the future financial situations of the veteran and his or her dependents.

Entities engaging in pension poaching tend to use high-pressure sales tactics directed toward potential customers, falsely guaranteeing benefits for veterans and their families even when the advertising entity lacks the federal accreditation required by law to file such claims and appeals for federal veterans' benefits. Often, they persuade veterans and their family members to abruptly move most or all of their assets to potentially qualify for certain federal veterans benefits, frequently causing veterans and their family members to unwittingly lose control over their assets and adversely affecting the ability of veterans and their families to qualify for Medicaid and other important benefits in the future. These entities frequently charge extremely high fees for these services, even in matters where federal law expressly prohibits such fees.

Through this legislation, the legislature intends to restrain this harmful and deceptive practice within New York State, providing necessary protections to the men and women of this state who courageously served in our nation's armed forces.
