AN ACT

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To provide, on an emergency basis, due to congressional review, for public safety enhancements in the District, and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “Secure DC Omnibus Congressional Review Emergency Amendment Act of 2024”.

Sec. 2. The Office of Unified Communications Establishment Act of 2004, effective December 7, 2004 (D.C. Law 15-205; D.C. Official Code § 1-327.51 et seq.), is amended by adding new sections 3207b and 3207c to read as follows:

“Sec. 3207b. Call data collection and posting.

“(a) On a monthly basis, the Office shall collect and publicly post on the Office’s website the number of calls eligible to be diverted and the number of calls actually diverted to:

“(1) The Department of Behavioral Health Access Help Line;

“(2) The District Department of Transportation, for motor vehicle collisions that do not result in an injury;

“(3) The Department of Public Works (“DPW”), for parking enforcement; and

“(4) The Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department (“FEMS”) Nurse Triage Line.

“(b) On a monthly basis, the Office shall collect and publicly post the following information on the Office’s website:

“(1) Descriptions of each call-handling issue, including mistaken addresses, duplicate responses, or any other error or omission reported by the Council, other agencies, the news media, OUC staff, or other sources, as well as the cause of the issue, whether the issue was sustained, and the corrective action taken by the Office;

“(2) The number of shifts operated under minimum staffing levels, for call-takers, dispatchers, and supervisors, including the difference between the minimum staffing level for each role required per shift and the actual number of staff members for each role on a shift;

“(3) Average and maximum call-to-answer times;

“(4) Average and maximum answer-to-dispatch times;

“(5) Percent of 911 calls in which call to queue is 90 seconds or less;

“(6) The total number of calls;

“(7) The number of calls in the queue for over 15 seconds;

“(8) The number of abandoned calls, defined as any call that is disconnected before it is answered;

“(9) The number and type of 911 misuse calls;

“(10) The number of text-to-911 messages received;

“(11) Average and maximum queue-to-dispatch and dispatch-to-arrival times for Priority 1 calls to Fire and Emergency Services (“FEMS”) and Priority 1 calls to the

Metropolitan Police Department (“MPD”);

“(12) The percentage of Priority 1 calls to FEMS and Priority 1 calls to MPD that move from queue to dispatch in 60 seconds or less;

“(13) Average and maximum time of call to arrival on the scene times for Priority 1 calls to FEMS and MPD; and “(14) The percentage of emergency medical services calls that lead to dispatch of advanced life support.

“(c) All data posted according to this section shall be archived and publicly posted for at least 5 years from the date of publication.

“Sec. 3207c. 311 services.

“(a) No later than 180 days after the applicability date of the Secure DC Omnibus Emergency Amendment Act of 2024, effective March 11, 2024 (D.C. Act 25-410; 71 DCR 2693), the Office shall permit persons to submit requests for the following services via the District’s 311 system at all times:

“(1) Maintenance of porous flexible pavement sidewalks by the District Department of Transportation (by selecting “porous flexible pavement” as the material within the “Sidewalk Repair” service group);

“(2) Leaf collection by the Department of Public Works (“DPW”); except, that the Office shall not be required to permit persons to submit requests for this service during seasons in which DPW does not offer this service; and

“(3) Graffiti removal by DPW; except, that the Office shall not be required to

74 permit persons to submit requests for this service during seasons in which DPW does not offer
75 this service.

76 “(b) No later than 180 days after the applicability date of the Secure DC Omnibus
77 Emergency Amendment Act of 2024, effective March 11, 2024 (D.C. Act 25-410; 71 DCR 78 2693), the Office shall facilitate referrals and access to the relevant servicing entities for the 79 following request-types, such as through the posting of website links or contact information, and 80 the Office may include a disclaimer that the referral does not commit the Office to back-end
81 work or quality assurance for completion of the service request:

82 “(1) Maintenance of electrical wires;

83 “(2) Maintenance of utility poles;

84 “(3) Maintenance of fire hydrants; and

85 “(4) Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Administration response to issues relating 86 to alcohol sales, including:

87 “(A) After-hours sales of alcohol;

88 “(B) Breach of a settlement agreement;

95 “(I) Trash.

“(c) No later than 180 days after the applicability date of the Secure DC Omnibus Emergency Amendment Act of 2024, effective March 11, 2024 (D.C. Act 25-410; 71 DCR 2693), the Office shall direct 311 system users to the National Park Service website when a user provides a property location that is under National Park Service jurisdiction.”.

Sec. 3. The Department of Youth Rehabilitation Services Establishment Act of 2004, effective April 12, 2005 (D.C. Law 15-335; D.C. Official Code § 2-1515.01 et seq.), is amended as follows:

(a) Section 101 (D.C. Official Code § 2-1515.01) is amended as follows:

(1) New paragraphs (9A) and (9B) are added to read as follows:

“(9A) “Hardware secure facility” means a congregate care facility with construction features and a staffing model designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of youth who are detained pending a final disposition of a petition.

“(9B) “Law enforcement officer” means a sworn member of the Metropolitan Police Department or any other law enforcement agency operating and authorized to make arrests in the District of Columbia.”.

(2) A new paragraph (11A) is added to read as follows:

“(11A) “Staff secure facility” means a foster home or congregate care facility in the community in which the movements and activities of individual youth residents may be restricted or subject to control through the use of a staff supervision model as well as through reasonable rules restricting entrance to and egress from the facility. A staff secure facility does not contain construction features designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of youth who are in its custody.”.

(b) Section 106 (D.C. Official Code § 2-1515.06) is amended as follows:

(1) Subsection (a) is amended as follows:

(A) Paragraph (1) is amended by striking the phrase “youth in the custody” and inserting the phrase “youth who are currently in or were previously in the custody” in its place.

(B) Paragraph (5) is amended by striking the phrase “youth in the custody” and inserting the phrase “youth who are currently in or were previously in the custody” in its place.

(2) Subsection (c) is amended to read as follows:

“(c) Notwithstanding the confidentiality requirements of this section, or any other provision of law, the Mayor, or the Mayor’s designee, any member of the Council, the Office of the Attorney General, the District of Columbia Auditor, and the District of Columbia Inspector General shall be permitted to obtain the records pertaining to youth who are currently in or were previously in the custody of the Department regardless of the source of the information contained in those records, when necessary for the discharge of their duties; provided, that the Department data is maintained, transmitted, and stored in a manner to protect the security and privacy of the youth identified and to prevent the disclosure of any of the data or information to any individual, entity, or agency not designated pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.”.

(3) Subsection (d) is amended to read as follows:

“(d) Notwithstanding the confidentiality requirements of this section, or any other provision of law, a law enforcement officer may obtain records pertaining to youth who are currently or were previously in the custody of the Department, other than juvenile case records, as that term is defined in D.C. Official Code § 16-2331(a), and juvenile social records, as that term is defined in D.C. Official Code § 16-2332(a), for the purpose of investigating a crime allegedly involving a youth in the custody of the Department. The confidentiality of any information disclosed to law enforcement officers pursuant to this section shall be maintained pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 16-2333.”.

(4) New subsections (e) through (h) are added to read as follows:

“(e)(1) The Department shall inform the Attorney General, and the committed youth’s counsel, in advance:

“(A) As soon as is practicable, each time a committed youth is released from a hardware or a staff secure facility, regardless of the length of release; and

“(B) Within 24 hours, each time a committed youth:

“(i) Escapes from a hardware secure facility or a staff secure facility; or “(ii) Absconds from a community placement.

“(2) This subsection shall not apply to any youth who is committed only for a status offense.

“(f) Notwithstanding subsection (a)(5) of this section, unless the release of the information is otherwise prohibited by law or the information relates to medical, dental, or mental health appointments, the Attorney General, at the Attorney General’s discretion, may disclose information received from the Department pursuant to subsection (e) of this section to:

“(1) Any victim, any eyewitness, or any duly authorized attorney of any victim or witness;

“ (2) Any immediate family member or custodian of any victim or eyewitness, if the victim or eyewitness is a child or if the victim is deceased or incapacitated, or any duly authorized attorney of such immediate family member or custodian; or

“ (3) The parent or guardian of the committed youth.

“ (g) Neither the Department’s failure to timely inform the Attorney General or committed youth’s counsel pursuant to subsection (e)(1) of this section nor the Attorney General’s decision to disclose information pursuant to subsection (f) of this section shall serve as the basis for delaying the release of a committed youth from a hardware secure facility or staff secure facility.

“ (h) No person shall disclose, inspect, or use records in violation of this section. A violation of this section shall constitute a violation of D.C. Official Code § 16-2336.”.

764 months and the aggregate value of property obtained is $1000 or more.

765 “(ii) When a person commits theft twice or more within a period of 766 6 months pursuant to sub-subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph, the thefts may be aggregated
767 and charged in a single count, in which event they shall constitute a single offense.

768 “(2) A conviction for first degree theft under paragraph (1)(C) of this subsection
769 merges with any other conviction for robbery under section 810 of An Act To establish a code of 770 law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1322; D.C. Official Code §
771 22-2801), and malicious destruction of property under section 848 of An Act To establish a code 772 of law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1327; D.C. Official Code 773 § 22-303), arising from the same act or course of conduct.

774 “(3) For a person found guilty of 2 or more offenses that merge under this 775 subsection, the sentencing court shall either:

776 “(A) Vacate all but one of the offenses prior to sentencing according to the 777 rule of priority in paragraph (4) of this subsection; or

778 “(B) Enter judgment and sentence the actor for offenses that merge;
779 provided, that:

780 “(i) Sentences for the offenses run concurrent to one another; and 781 “(ii) The convictions for all but, at most, one of the offenses shall 782 be vacated after:

783 “(I) The time for appeal has expired; or

784 “(II) The judgment that was appealed has been decided.

785 “(4) When convictions are vacated under paragraph (3)(A) of this subsection, the 786 conviction that remains shall be the conviction for:

787 “(A) The offense with the highest authorized maximum period of 788 incarceration; or

789 “(B) If 2 or more offenses have the same highest authorized maximum 790 period of incarceration, any offense that the sentencing court deems appropriate.”.

791 (c) Section 201(b) (D.C. Official Code § 22-3601(b)) is amended to read as follows:

792 “(b) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall apply to the following offenses:
793 any crime of violence, as that term is defined in D.C. Official Code § 23-1331(4), theft, fraud in 794 the first degree, and fraud in the second degree, identity theft, financial exploitation of a
795 vulnerable adult or elderly person, or an attempt or conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing 796 offenses.”.

797 (d) New sections 203 and 204 are added to read as follows:

798 “Sec. 203. Enhanced penalty for committing a crime of violence against a person at a
799 Department of Parks and Recreation property.

800 “(a) Any person who commits a crime of violence, as that term is defined in D.C. Official
801 Code § 23-1331(4), against another person while located on a property administered by the 802 Department of Parks and Recreation may be punished by a fine of up to 1 1/2 times the
803 maximum fine otherwise authorized for the offense and may be imprisoned for a term of up to 1
804 1/2 times the maximum term of imprisonment otherwise authorized by the offense, or both.

805 “(b) For the purposes of this section, the term “property” means any park, field, court,
806 play area, facility, or building, and the associated parking lot.

807 “Sec. 204. Enhanced penalties for committing a crime of violence against vulnerable 808 adults.

809 “(a) Any person who commits a crime of violence, as that term is defined in D.C. Official
810 Code § 23-1331(4), against a vulnerable adult may be punished by a fine of up to 1 1/2 times the

811 maximum fine otherwise authorized for the offense and may be imprisoned for a term of up to 1
812 1/2 times the maximum term of imprisonment otherwise authorized for the offense, or both.

813 “(b) It is an affirmative defense that the accused knew or reasonably believed that the 814 victim was not a vulnerable adult at the time of the offense, or could not have known or 815 determined that the victim was a vulnerable adult because of the manner in which the offense
816 was committed. This defense shall be established by a preponderance of the evidence.

817 “(c) For the purposes of this section, the term “vulnerable adult” means a person who is
818 18 years of age or older and has one or more physical or mental limitations that substantially 819 impairs the person’s ability to independently provide for their daily needs or safeguard their 820 person, property, or legal interests.”.

837 and White Collar Crimes Act of 1982, effective December 1, 1982 (D.C. Law 4-164; D.C.
838 Official Code § 22-3211); or 839 “(4) Threats to do bodily harm, as that term is defined in section 2 of An Act To 840 confer concurrent jurisdiction on the police court of the District of Columbia in certain 841 jurisdictions, approved July 16, 1912 (37 Stat. 193; D.C. Official Code § 22-407).”
842 (b) Section 5(b) (D.C. Official Code § 22-3312.04(b)) is amended by striking the phrase 843 “shall be” and inserting the phrase “or section 4 shall be” in its place.
844 Sec. 20. The Taxicab Drivers Protection Act of 2000, effective June 9, 2001 (D.C. Law 845 13-307; D.C. Official Code § 22-3751 et seq.), is amended as follows:
846 (a) Section 2 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3751) is amended to read as follows:
847 “Sec. 2. Enhanced penalties for committing a crime of violence against transportation
848 providers.
849 “(a) Any person who commits a crime of violence, as that term is defined in D.C. Official
850 Code § 23-1331(4), against a transportation provider may be punished by a fine of up to 1 1/2
851 times the maximum fine otherwise authorized for the offense and may be imprisoned for a term 852 of up to 1 1/2 times the maximum term of imprisonment otherwise authorized for the offense, or 853 both.

854 “(b) For the purposes of this section, the term “transportation provider” means a person
855 who operates within the District of Columbia a private vehicle-for-hire or a public vehicle-for-
856 hire, as those terms are defined in section 4(16A) and (17) of the Department of For-Hire
857 Vehicles Establishment Act of 1985, effective March 25, 1986 (D.C. Law 6-97; D.C. Official 858 Code § 50-301.03(16A) and (17)), or a person that provides transportation of parcels, food, or 859 beverages in the District for compensation.”.

860 (b) Section 2a (D.C. Official Code § 22-3751.01) is amended as follows:

861 (1) The section heading is amended to read as follows:

862 “Sec. 2a. Enhanced penalties for committing a crime of violence against transit operators,
863 Metrorail station managers, employees, and passengers.”.

864 (2) Subsection (a) is amended to read as follows:

865 “(a) Any person who commits a crime of violence, as that term is defined in D.C. Official
866 Code § 23-1331(4), against a transit operator, who, at the time of the offense, is authorized to
867 operate and is operating a mass transit vehicle in the District of Columbia, or against a Metrorail
868 station manager or Metrorail station employee while on duty in the District of Columbia, may be 869 punished by a fine of up to one and 1/2 times the maximum fine otherwise authorized for the 870 offense and may be imprisoned for a term of up to one and 1/2 times the maximum term of 871 imprisonment otherwise authorized by the offense, or both.”.

872 (3) A new subsection (a-1) is added to read as follows:

873 “(a-1) Any person who commits a crime of violence, as that term is defined in D.C.
874 Official Code § 23-1331(4), against a passenger of a mass transit vehicle may be punished by a 875 fine of up to one and 1/2 times the maximum fine otherwise authorized for the offense and may be imprisoned for a term of up to one and 1/2 times the maximum term of imprisonment otherwise authorized by the offense, or both.”.

(4) Subsection (b) is amended as follows:

(A) A new paragraph (1A) is added to read as follows:

“(1A) “Metrorail station employee” means any Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority employee who operates a bus or train or works in a Metrorail station.”.

(B) A new paragraph (2A) is added to read as follows:

“(2A) “Passenger” means a person who is traveling on a mass transit vehicle or waiting at a marked mass transit vehicle boarding location, such as a bus stop or Metrorail station.”.

(c) Section 3 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3752) is repealed.

Sec. 21. Section 2(6)(B) of the Sex Offender Registration Act of 1999, effective July 11, 2000 (D.C. Law 13-137; D.C. Official Code § 22-4001(6)(B)), is amended by striking the phrase “12 years” wherever it appears and inserting the phrase “13 years” in its place.

Sec. 22. The DNA Sample Collection Act of 2001, effective November 3, 2001 (D.C. Law 14-52; D.C. Official Code § 22-4151), is amended by adding new sections 2a and 2b to read as follows:

“Sec. 2a. Collection and use of DNA identification information from defendants.

“(a)(1) The Mayor may collect a DNA sample from each individual who has been charged by information, complaint, or indictment for:

“(A) A crime of violence, as that term is defined in D.C. Official Code § 23-1331(4);

898 “(B) A dangerous crime, as that term is defined in D.C. Official Code §
899 23-1331(3);
900 “(C) The offenses listed in section 2(a)(3) through (7); or 901 “(D) Attempt or conspiracy to commit any of the offenses listed in 902 subparagraphs (A) through (C) of this paragraph.
903 “(2) If an individual appears in court having been charged by information, 904 complaint, or indictment with an offense set forth in subsection (a)(1) of this section without 905 previously having a DNA sample collected, the court may direct the collection of a DNA sample 906 from that individual.
907 “(3) DNA sample collection under this section may be limited to individuals who 908 are fingerprinted.
909 “(4) The Mayor, the Metropolitan Police Department, or the court, as applicable,
910 may authorize, or enter into agreements with, other local, state, or federal governmental agencies
911 or private entities to collect DNA samples under this section.
912 “(5) An agency or entity may, but need not, collect a DNA sample from an 913 individual if:
914 “(A) Another agency or entity has collected, or will collect, a DNA sample
915 from that individual and has provided, or will provide, the sample for analysis and inclusion of 916 the results in CODIS as provided in subsection (b) of this section; or 917 “(B) CODIS already contains a DNA analysis with respect to that
918 individual.

“ (6) DNA sample collection may be repeated if the agency or entity responsible for collection is informed that a sample collected from the individual does not satisfy the requirements for analysis or for entry of the results of the analysis into CODIS.

“(b) The Mayor or other authorized agency or entity (as applicable) shall furnish an individual’s DNA sample collected under this section to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory, or to another laboratory approved by the FBI, for the purpose of carrying out a DNA analysis on the DNA sample and including the results in CODIS. The requirement to furnish the DNA sample to the FBI Laboratory or to another laboratory approved by the FBI may be waived, with the permission of the FBI, if DNA samples are analyzed by means of Rapid DNA instruments and the results are included in CODIS. DNA samples may not be collected, analyzed, or included in CODIS under this section before a judicial officer has made an initial probable cause finding that the individual committed an offense set forth in subsection (a)(1) of this section.

“(c) Any DNA samples collected and records of DNA analyses generated under this section shall be destroyed and expunged automatically from CODIS if:

“(1) A criminal action begun against the individual does not result in a conviction of the individual for an offense set forth in subsection (a)(1) of this section;

“(2) The conviction for an offense set forth in subsection (a)(1) of this section is reversed or vacated and no new trial is permitted; or

“(3) The individual is granted an unconditional pardon.

“(d) The authorization of DNA sample collection by this section shall not limit DNA sample collection by any agency pursuant to any other authority.

941 “(e) For the purposes of this section, the terms “DNA sample”, “DNA analysis”, and 942 “Rapid DNA instruments” shall have the same meaning as provided in 34 U.S.C. § 40703(c).

943 “Sec. 2b. Collection of DNA identification information from convicted offenders.

944 “(a)(1) A District agency may collect a DNA sample from an individual who is, or has 945 been, convicted of an offense set forth in section 2(a).

946 “(2) A District agency or the court, as applicable, may authorize, or enter into 947 agreements with, other local, state, or federal governmental agencies or private entities to collect
948 DNA samples under this section.

949 “(3) An agency or entity may, but need not, collect a DNA sample from an 950 individual if:

951 “(A) Another agency or entity has collected, or will collect, a DNA sample
952 from that individual and has provided, or will provide, the sample for analysis and inclusion of 953 the results in CODIS as provided in subsection (b) of this section; or

954 “(B) CODIS already contains a DNA analysis with respect to that 955 individual.

956 “(4) DNA sample collection may be repeated if the agency or entity responsible 957 for collection is informed that a sample collected from the individual does not satisfy the 958 requirements for analysis or for entry of the results of the analysis into CODIS.

959 “(b) The agency or entity, as applicable, shall furnish each DNA sample collected under 960 this section to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory, or to another laboratory approved
961 by the FBI, for the purpose of carrying out a DNA analysis on each such DNA sample and 962 including the results in CODIS. The requirements of this subsection may be waived, with the

963 permission of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, if DNA samples are analyzed by means of 964 Rapid DNA instruments and the results are included in CODIS.

965 “(c) The authorization of DNA sample collection by this section shall not limit DNA
966 sample collection by any agency pursuant to any other authority.

967 “(d) For the purposes of this section, the terms “DNA sample”, “DNA analysis”, and 968 “Rapid DNA instruments” shall have the same meaning as provided in 34 U.S.C. § 40703(c).”.

969 Sec. 23. The Criminal Justice Coordinating Council for the District of Columbia
970 Establishment Act of 2001, effective October 3, 2001 (D.C. Law 14-28; D.C. Official Code § 22-

1055 effective June 11, 2013 (D.C. Law 19-317; D.C. Official Code § 22-3571.01), or incarcerated for 1056 no more than 10 years, or both, if:

1057 “(1) The violation of this section occurs after a person has been convicted of a
1058 felony, either in the District of Columbia or another jurisdiction; or

1059 “(2) Five or more projectiles are discharged from a firearm within a single course 1060 of conduct.

1061 “(d) When arising from the same act or course of conduct, a conviction for an offense
1062 under this section shall merge with a conviction:

1063 “(1) Under section 3a; or

1064 “(2) For another offense outside of this act that has, as an element in the offense
1065 definition or in the applicable penalty enhancement, possessing or having readily available a 1066 firearm, imitation firearm, or dangerous weapon.

1067 “(e) No mental state shall be required as to any element under subsection (a)(2)(B) of this 1068 section.

1069 “(f) It shall be a defense to liability under this section that the person discharged a firearm
1070 under circumstances constituting lawful self-defense or defense of others.

1071 “Sec. 3d. Unlawful discarding of firearms and ammunition.

1072 “(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly discard, throw, or deposit any 1073 loaded or unloaded firearm or ammunition in a place other than the person’s dwelling place, 1074 place of business, or on other land possessed by the person.

1075 “(b) Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply where a person:

1076 “(1) Throws, discards, or deposits any firearm or ammunition in a securely locked
1077 box or secured container;

1078 “(2) Is expressly directed by a law enforcement officer to throw, discard, or 1079 deposit any firearm or ammunition, and does so in the manner directed by the officer, and not
1080 while fleeing or attempting to elude any law enforcement officer;

1081 “(3) Throws, discards, or deposits any firearm or ammunition while participating 1082 in a lawful firearms training and safety class conducted by an arms instructor; or

1083 “(4) Who is a licensee, as that term is defined in section 901(5) of the Firearms
1084 Control Regulations Act of 1975, effective June 16, 2015 (D.C. Law 20-279, D.C. Official Code 1085 § 7-2509.01(5)), and is in compliance with the provisions of Title IX of the Firearms Control
1086 Regulations Act of 1975, effective June 16, 2015 (D.C. Law 20-279, D.C. Official Code § 7-1087 2509.01 et seq.).

1088 “(c) It shall be an affirmative defense, which shall be proven by a preponderance of the 1089 evidence, that the person threw, discarded, or deposited the firearm or ammunition while, in fact,
1090 voluntarily surrendering the item pursuant to section 705 of the Firearms Control Regulations
1091 Act of 1975, effective September 24, 1976 (D.C. Law 1-85, D.C. Official Code § 7-2507.05) or 1092 as expressly provided by District or federal law.

1093 “(d)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a person who violates this
1094 section shall be fined no more than the amount set forth in section 101 of the Criminal Fine
1095 Proportionality Amendment Act of 2012, effective June 11, 2013 (D.C. Law 19-317; D.C.
1096 Official Code § 22-3571.01), or incarcerated for no more than 5 years, or both.

1097 “(2) If the violation of this section occurs after a person has been convicted of a
1098 felony, either in the District of Columbia or another jurisdiction, the person shall be fined no
1099 more than the amount set forth in section 101 of the Criminal Fine Proportionality Amendment
1100 Act of 2012, effective June 11, 2013 (D.C. Law 19-317; D.C. Official Code § 22-3571.01), or 1101 incarcerated for no more than 10 years, or both.”.

1102 (e) Section 14 (D.C. Official Code § 22-4514) is amended as follows:

1103 (1) Subsection (a) is amended by striking the phrase “any machine gun,” and 1104 inserting the phrase “any item that is, in fact, a machine gun,” in its place.

1105 (2) Subsection (c) is amended to read as follows:

1106 “(c) Whoever violates this section shall be punished as provided in section 15 unless:

1107 “(1) The violation involves possession of a sawed-off shotgun, or ghost gun, in 1108 which case such person shall be fined no more than the amount set forth in section 101 of the 1109 Criminal Fine Proportionality Amendment Act of 2012, effective June 11, 2013 (D.C. Law 19-1110 317; D.C. Official Code § 22-3571.01), or incarcerated for no more than 5 years, or both;

1111 “(2) The violation involves possession of a machine gun, in which case such 1112 person shall be fined no more than the amount set forth in section 101 of the Criminal Fine
1113 Proportionality Amendment Act of 2012, effective June 11, 2013 (D.C. Law 19-317; D.C.
1114 Official Code § 22-3571.01), or incarcerated for no more than 5 years, which shall be imposed

1115 consecutive to any other sentence of imprisonment, or both; or

1116 “(3) The violation occurs after such person has been convicted in the District of 1117 Columbia of a violation of this section, or of a felony, either in the District of Columbia or in 1118 another jurisdiction, in which case such person shall be fined no more than the amount set forth
1119 in section 101 of the Criminal Fine Proportionality Amendment Act of 2012, effective June 11,
1120 2013 (D.C. Law 19-317; D.C. Official Code § 22-3571.01), or incarcerated for no more than 10
1121 years, or both.”.

1122 (3) Subsection (d) is repealed.

1123 Sec. 25. Title 23 of the District of Columbia Official Code is amended as follows:

1124 (a) Section 23-113(a) is amended by adding a new paragraph (1A) to read as follows:

1125 “(1A) Any offense that is properly joinable with any of the crimes listed in 1126 paragraph (1) of this subsection is barred if not commenced within 15 years after it is 1127 committed.”.

1128 (b) Section 23-563(b) is amended to read as follows:

1129 “(b)(1) A warrant or summons issued by the Superior Court of the District of Columbia 1130 for an offense punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine only, or by 1131 such imprisonment and a fine:

1132 “(A)(i) May be served in any place in the District of Columbia; or 1133 “(ii) May be served at any place within the jurisdiction of the

1134 United States, if a judicial officer of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia finds that

1135 good cause exists for the warrant or summons to be served at any place within the jurisdiction of

1136 the United States; and

1137 “(B) May not be executed more than one year after the date of issuance.

1138 “(2) Good cause for the warrant or summons to be served at any place within the 1139 jurisdiction of the United States is presumed where the warrant or summons is for an intrafamily 1140 offense, as that term is defined in § 16-1001(8), or where the warrant or summons is for an 1141 offense under Chapter 30 of Title 22 of the District of Columbia Official Code.”.

1142 (c) Section 23-581 is amended as follows:

1143 (1) Subsection (a)(3) is amended as follows:

1144 (A) Strike the phrase “Fleeing from the scene of an accident” and insert
1145 the phrase “Leaving after colliding” in its place.

1146 (B) Strike the phrase “section 10(a) (D.C. Official Code § 50-2201.05(a))”
1147 and insert the phrase “section 10c (D.C. Official Code § 50-2201.05c)” in its place.

1148 (2) Subsection (a-3) is amended by striking the phrase “sections 22-3112.1 and 1149 22-3112.2” and inserting the phrase “§§ 22-3312.01, 22-3312.02, and 22-3312.03” in its place.

1150 (d) Section 23-1303(d) is amended to read as follows:

1151 “(d) Any information contained in the agency’s files, presented in its report, or divulged 1152 during the course of any hearing shall not be admissible on the issue of guilt in any judicial 1153 proceeding, but such information may be used in proceedings under §§ 23-1327, 23-1328, and 1154 23-1329, in perjury proceedings, and for the purposes of impeachment in any subsequent 1155 proceeding. Any information obtained from a device, as that term is defined in § 22-1211(a)(2), 1156 may be used on the issue of guilt in any judicial proceeding.”.

1157 (e) Section 23-1321 is amended as follows:

1158 (1) Subsection (b) is amended by striking the phrase “period of release, unless”
1159 and inserting the phrase “period of release, and subject to the condition that the person cooperate
1160 in the collection of a DNA sample from the person if the collection of such a sample is 1161 authorized pursuant to Chapter 41B of Title 22 of the District of Columbia Official Code, unless”
1162 in its place.

1163 (2) Subsection (c)(1)(A) is amended by striking the phrase “period of release;”
1164 and inserting the phrase “period of release and that the person cooperate in the collection of a
1165 DNA sample from the person if the collection of such a sample is authorized pursuant to Chapter
1166 41B of Title 22 of the District of Columbia Official Code;” in its place.

1167 (3) A new subsection (e) is added to read as follows:

1168 “(e)(1) The Metropolitan Police Department may request a supervisory agency to provide 1169 the Metropolitan Police Department with location and identification data collected from any 1170 detection device that a person is required to wear while incarcerated or committed, while subject
1171 to a protection order, or while on pretrial release, presentence release, predisposition release,
1172 supervised release, probation, or parole that is deemed by the Chief of Police as necessary in 1173 conducting a criminal law enforcement investigation. The Department of Youth Rehabilitation
1174 Services shall comply with any request under this subsection.

1175 “(2) For the purposes of this subsection, the term:

1176 “(A) “Device” shall have the same meaning as in section 103(a)(2) of the 1177 Omnibus Public Safety and Justice Amendment Act of 2009, effective December 10, 2009 (D.C.
1178 Law 18-88; D.C. Official Code § 22-1211(a)(2)).

1195 Improvement Act of 1997, approved August 5, 1997 (111 Stat. 748; D.C. Official Code § 24-1196 133), is amended as follows:

1197 (a) Subsection (b)(2)(F) is amended to read as follows:

1198 “(F) Develop and implement intermediate sanctions and incentives for 1199 sentenced offenders that officers may use in response to violations of, or compliance with, the 1200 conditions of release;”.

1201 (b) Subsection (c) is amended as follows:

1202 (1) Paragraph (2) is amended as follows:

1203 (A) Subparagraph (A) is amended by striking the phrase “; and” and 1204 inserting a semicolon in its place.

1205 (B) Subparagraph (B) is amended by striking the period and inserting the 1206 phrase “; and” in its place.

1207 (C) A new subparagraph (C) is added to read as follows:

1208 “(C) The Agency may impose intermediate sanctions and utilize
1209 incentives for offenders who violate, or comply with, the conditions of supervised release;
1210 provided, that the Director shall notify the Commission of the use of any intermediate sanctions
1211 on the same day in which the sanction is imposed.”.

1212 (2) Paragraph (3) is amended to read as follows:

1213 “(3) Supervision of probationers. — Subject to appropriations and program
1214 availability, the Agency shall supervise all offenders placed on probation by the Superior Court
1215 of the District of Columbia. The Agency shall carry out the conditions of release imposed by the 1216 Superior Court (including conditions that probationers undergo training, education, therapy, 1217 counseling, drug testing, or drug treatment), impose or implement intermediate sanctions and 1218 utilize incentives for violations of, or compliance with, the conditions of release, and shall make 1219 such reports to the Superior Court with respect to an individual on probation as the Superior
1220 Court may require.”.

1221 (3) Paragraph (4) is amended to read as follows:

1222 “(4) Supervision of District of Columbia parolees. — The Agency shall supervise
1223 all individuals on parole pursuant to the District of Columbia Official Code. The Agency shall

1224 carry out the conditions of release imposed by the United States Parole Commission or, with 1225 respect to a misdemeanor, by the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, impose or 1226 implement intermediate sanctions and utilize incentives for violations of, or compliance with, the 1227 conditions of release, and shall make such reports to the Commission or Court with respect to an 1228 individual on parole supervision as the Commission or Court may require.”.

1229 (c) Subsection (d) is amended to read as follows:

1230 “(d) Authority of officers. — The supervision officers of the Agency shall have and 1231 exercise the same powers and authority as are granted by law to United States Probation and 1232 Pretrial Officers; except that, officers shall have the authority to impose or implement
1233 intermediate sanctions and utilize incentives for violations of, or compliance with, the conditions 1234 of release.”.

1235 (d) A new subsection (h) is added to read as follows:

1236 “(h) For purposes of this section, the term:

1237 “(1) “Incentives” means individualized, goal-oriented, and graduated responses to 1238 a sentenced offender’s compliance with the conditions of release designed to reinforce or modify 1239 the skills and behaviors of the offender.

1240 “(2) “Intermediate sanctions” means individualized, graduated punishment
1241 options and sanctions, other than incarceration, imposed in response to a sentenced offender’s 1242 violation of the conditions of release, including:

1243 “(A) Electronic monitoring, including GPS monitoring;

1244 “(B) Drug and alcohol testing;

1245 “(C) Reporting requirements to probation officers;

1246 “(D) Rehabilitative interventions such as substance abuse and mental 1247 health treatment; and

1248 “(E) Community service.”.

1249 Sec. 27. The lead-in language of section 28-5402 of the District of Columbia Official
1250 Code is amended by striking the phrase “A retailer” and inserting the phrase “Beginning January 1251 1, 2025, a retailer” in its place.

1252 Sec. 28. The Act to Regulate Public Conduct on Public Passenger Vehicles, effective
1253 September 23, 1975 (D.C. Law 1-18; D.C. Official Code § 35-251 et seq.), is amended as 1254 follows:

1255 (a) Section 3 (D.C. Official Code § 35-252) is amended as follows:

1256 (1) The existing text is designated as subsection (a).

1257 (2) A new subsection (b) is added to read as follows:

1258 “(b) A person who is stopped by an individual authorized to issue notices of infractions
1259 under section 5(a)(3) for violating subsection (a) of this section shall, upon request, inform that 1260 authorized individual of his or her true name and address for the purpose of including that 1261 information on a notice of infraction; provided, that no person shall be required to possess or 1262 display any documentary proof of his or her name or address in order to comply with the 1263 requirements of this section.”.

1264 (b) Section 5 (D.C. Official Code § 35-254) is amended as follows:

1265 (1) Subsection (a)(1) is amended by striking the phrase “section 3” and inserting
1266 the phrase “section 3(a)” in its place.

1267 (2) Subsection (b) is amended by adding a new paragraph (1A) to read as follows:

1268 “(1A) A person who refuses to provide his or her name and address, or who 1269 knowingly provides an incorrect name or address, to an authorized individual in violation of 1270 section 3(b) shall, upon conviction, be fined no more than $100.”.

1271 Sec. 29. Section 4 of the Transit Operator Protection and Enhanced Penalty Amendment
1272 Act of 2008, effective July 23, 2008 (D.C. Law 17-206; D.C. Official Code § 35-261), is 1273 amended as follows:

1274 (a) The section heading is amended to read as follows:

1275 “Sec. 4. Notice of enhanced penalties for commission of offenses against transit
1276 operators, Metrorail station managers, Metrorail station employees, and mass transit vehicle 1277 passengers.”.

1278 (b) Subsection (a)(1) is amended to read as follows:

1279 “(1) The Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority shall post or otherwise provide 1280 conspicuous notice of the enhanced penalties for the commission of certain offenses against 1281 transit operators, Metrorail station managers, Metrorail station employees, and mass transit
1282 vehicle passengers in the District of Columbia pursuant to section 2a of the Taxicab Drivers
1283 Protection Act of 2000, effective July 23, 2008 (D.C. Law 17-206; D.C. Official Code § 22-1284 3751.01), on all Metrobus buses and Metrorail trains operating in the District of Columbia, and 1285 at or near all Metrorail station kiosks within the District of Columbia.”.

1286 Sec. 30. The Anti-Loitering/Drug Free Zone Act of 1996, effective June 3, 1997 (D.C.
1287 Law 11-270; D.C. Official Code § 48-1001 et seq.), is revived as of the applicability date of the 1288 Secure DC Omnibus Emergency Amendment Act of 2024, effective March 11, 2024 (D.C. Act 1289 25-410; 71 DCR 2693), and amended to read as follows:

1290 “Sec. 2. Definitions.

1291 For the purposes of this act, the term:

1292 “(1) “Chief of Police” means the Chief of the Metropolitan Police Department as 1293 the designated agent of the Mayor.

1294 “(2) “Controlled Substances Act” means the District of Columbia Uniform 1295 Controlled Substances Act of 1981, effective August 5, 1981 (D.C. Law 4-29; D.C. Official 1296 Code § 48-901.01 et seq.).

1297 “(3) “Disperse” means to depart from the designated drug free zone and not to 1298 recongregate within the drug free zone with anyone from the group ordered to depart for the 1299 purpose of committing an offense under Title IV of the Controlled Substances Act for the 1300 duration of the zone.

1301 “(4) “Drug free zone” means public space on public property in an area not to 1302 exceed a square of 1,000 feet on each side that is established pursuant to section 3.

1303 “(5) “Illegal drug” means the same as the term “controlled substance” in section
1304 102(4) of the Controlled Substances Act.

1305 “(6) “Known unlawful drug user, possessor, or seller” means a person who has,
1306 within the knowledge of the arresting officer, been convicted in any court of any violation
1307 involving the use, possession, or distribution of any of the substances referred to in Title IV of 1308 the Controlled Substances Act.

1309 “(7) “Police Department” means the Metropolitan Police Department.

1310 “Sec. 3. Procedure for establishing a drug free zone.

1311 “(a) The Chief of Police may declare any public area a drug free zone for a period not to 1312 exceed 120 consecutive hours.

1313 “(b) In determining whether to designate a drug free zone, the Chief of Police shall 1314 consider the following:

1315 “(1) Within the preceding 6-month period, the occurrence of a disproportionately 1316 high number of:

1317 “(A) Arrests for the possession or distribution of illegal drugs in the 1318 proposed drug free zone;

1319 “(B) Police reports for dangerous crimes, as that term is defined in D.C.
1320 Official Code § 23-1331(3), that were committed in the proposed drug free zone; or 1321 “(C) Police reports for crimes of violence, as that term is defined in D.C.

1322 Official Code § 23-1331(4), that were committed in the proposed drug free zone;

1323 “(2) Any number of homicides that were committed in the proposed drug free
1324 zone;

1325 “(3) Objective evidence or verifiable information that shows that illegal drugs are 1326 being sold and distributed on public space on public property within the proposed drug free zone;
1327 and

1328 “(4) Any other verifiable information from which the Chief of Police may 1329 ascertain whether the health or safety of residents who live in the proposed drug free zone are 1330 endangered by the purchase, sale, or use of illegal drugs or other illegal activity.

1331 “(c) At least 24 hours prior to the designation of the drug free zone, the Chief of Police
1332 shall notify, in writing:

1333 “(1) The Chairman and each member of the Council of the District of Columbia
1334 of the declaration of the drug free zone and the boundaries of the drug free zone;

1335 “(2) All licensed medical or social services clinics operating in or adjacent to the 1336 drug free zone of the declaration of the drug free zone and the boundaries of the drug free zone;
1337 and

1338 “(3) The Deputy Mayor for Health and Human Services, the Director of the 1339 Department of Behavioral Health, the Director of the Department of Health, the Director of the 1340 Department of Human Services, the Deputy Mayor for Public Safety and Justice, the Director of 1341 the Office of Neighborhood Safety and Engagement, and the Office of the Attorney General’s
1342 “Cure the Streets” program of the designation of the drug free zone, the boundaries of the drug 1343 free zone, and the need for any relevant medical or social services in the surrounding area, in 1344 order to ensure that this designation does not conflict with section 5(c).

1345 “(d) The Chief of Police may not declare the same area, or an overlapping area, as a drug
1346 free zone for more than 360 consecutive hours or for more than 360 hours within a 30-day
1347 period.

1348 “Sec. 4. Notice of a drug free zone.

1349 “Upon the designation of a drug free zone, the Police Department shall mark each block
1350 within the drug free zone by using barriers, tape, or police officers that post the following
1351 information in the immediate area of, and borders around, the drug free zone:

1352 “(1) A statement that it is unlawful for a person to congregate in a group of 2 or 1353 more persons for the purpose of committing an offense under Title IV of the Controlled
1354 Substances Act within the boundaries of a drug free zone, and to fail to disperse after being

1355 instructed to disperse by a uniformed officer of the Police Department who reasonably believes
1356 the person is congregating for the purpose of committing an offense under Title IV of the
1357 Controlled Substances Act;

1358 “(2) The boundaries of the drug free zone;

1359 “(3) A statement of the effective dates of the drug free zone designation; and 1360 “(4) Any other additional notice to inform the public of the drug free zone.

1361 “Sec. 5. Prohibition.

1362 “(a) It shall be unlawful for a person to congregate in a group of 2 or more within the 1363 perimeter of a drug free zone established pursuant to section 3 for the purpose of committing an 1364 offense under Title IV of the Controlled Substances Act, and to fail to disperse after being
1365 instructed to disperse by a uniformed officer of the Police Department who reasonably believes
1366 the person is congregating for the purpose of committing an offense under Title IV of the 1367 Controlled Substances Act.

1368 “(b) In making a determination that a person is congregating in a drug free zone for the 1369 purpose of committing an offense under Title IV of the Controlled Substances Act, the totality of 1370 the circumstances involved shall be considered. Among the circumstances which may be 1371 considered in determining whether such purpose is manifested are:

1372 “(1) The conduct of a person being observed, including that such person is 1373 behaving in a manner raising a reasonable belief that the person is engaging or is about to engage 1374 in illegal drug activity, such as the observable distribution of small packages to other persons, the 1375 receipt of currency for the exchange of a small package, operating as a lookout, warning others
1376 of the arrival of police, concealing himself or herself or any object which reasonably may be

1377 connected to unlawful drug-related activity, or engaging in any other conduct normally 1378 associated by law enforcement agencies with the illegal distribution or possession of drugs;
1379 “(2) Information from a reliable source indicating that a person being observed
1380 routinely distributes illegal drugs within the drug free zone;
1381 “(3) Information from a reliable source indicating that the person being observed
1382 is currently engaging in illegal drug-related activity within the drug free zone;
1383 “(4) Such person is physically identified by the officer as a member of a gang or 1384 association which engages in illegal drug activity;
1385 “(5) Such person is a known unlawful drug user, possessor, or seller;
1386 “(6) Such person has no other apparent lawful reason for congregating in the drug 1387 free zone, such as waiting for a bus, being near one’s own residence, or waiting to receive 1388 medical or social services;
1389 “(7) Any vehicle involved in the observed circumstances is registered to a known
1390 unlawful drug user, possessor, or seller, or a person for whom there is an outstanding arrest
1391 warrant for a crime involving drug related activity.
1392 “(c) The prohibition under this section shall not be applied with the primary purpose of 1393 depriving persons of social or medical services.
1394 “(d) The Chief of Police shall issue a General Order establishing protocols to ensure that 1395 persons seeking or receiving medical or social services near or in a drug free zone are not 1396 prevented, discouraged, or otherwise deterred from seeking such services.
1397 “Sec. 6. Penalties.
1398 “(a) Any person who violates section 5 shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of not

1399 more than $300, imprisonment for not more than 180 days, or both.

1400 “(b) The fine set forth in this section shall not be limited by section 101 of the Criminal 1401 Fine Proportionality Amendment Act of 2012, effective June 11, 2013 (D.C. Law 19-317; D.C.
1402 Official Code § 22-3571.01).

1403 Sec. 31. Chapter 39 of Title 24 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (24 1404 DCMR § 3900 et seq.), is amended as follows:

1405 (a) Subsection 3900.5 is repealed.

1406 (b) Subsection 3900.9 is amended to read as follows:

1407 “3900.9 (a) For any incident involving an officer-involved death or serious use of force, a
1408 member shall not review their body-worn camera recordings or any body-worn camera
1409 recordings that have been shared with them to assist in initial report writing.

1410 “(b) A member shall indicate, when writing any initial or subsequent reports,
1411 whether the officer viewed body-worn camera footage prior to writing the report and specify 1412 what body-worn camera footage the officer viewed.”.

1413 (c) Section 3999.1 is amended as follows:

1414 (1) The definition of “serious use of force” is amended to read as follows:

1415 ““Serious use of force” means any:

1416 “(1) Firearm discharges by a Metropolitan Police Department officer, with the 1417 exception of a negligent discharge that does not otherwise put members of the public at risk of 1418 injury or death, or a range or training incident;

1419 “(2) Head strikes by a Metropolitan Police Department officer with an impact 1420 weapon;

1421 “(3) Use of force by a Metropolitan Police Department officer that:

1422 “(A) Results in serious bodily injury;

1423 “(B) Results in a protracted loss of consciousness, or that create a

1424 substantial risk of death, serious disfigurement, disability or impairment of the functioning of

1425 any body part or organ;

1426 “(C) Involves the use of a prohibited technique, as that term is defined in

1427 section 3 of the Limitation on the Use of the Chokehold Act of 1985, effective January 25, 1986

1428 (D.C. Law 6-77; D.C. Official Code § 5-125.02(6)); or

1429 “(D) Results in a death; and

1430 “(4) Incidents in which a Metropolitan Police Department canine bites a person.”.

1431 (2) Insert a new definition between the definitions of “next of kin” and “subject”

1432 to read as follows:

1433 ““Serious bodily injury”” means extreme physical pain, illness, or impairment of physical

1434 condition including physical injury that involves a substantial risk of death, protracted and

1435 obvious disfigurement, protracted loss or impairment of the function of a bodily member or 1436 organ, or protracted loss of consciousness.”.

1437 Sec. 32. Section 5 of the Prioritizing Public Safety Temporary Amendment Act of 2023, 1438 enacted on October 5, 2023 (D.C. Act 25-229; 70 DCR 13762), is repealed.

1439 Sec. 33. Applicability.

1440 Section 9 shall apply as of July 22, 2020.

1441 Sec. 34. Fiscal impact statement.

1442 The Council adopts the fiscal impact statement of the Budget Director as the fiscal impact

1443 statement required by section 4a of the General Legislative Procedures Act of 1975, approved
1444 October 16, 2006 (120 Stat. 2038; D.C. Official Code § 1-301.47a).

1445 Sec. 35. Effective date.

1446 This act shall take effect following approval by the Mayor (or in the event of veto by the 1447 Mayor, action by the Council to override the veto), and shall remain in effect for no longer than 1448 90 days, as provided for emergency acts of the Council of the District of Columbia in section
1449 412(a) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 788; 1450 D.C. Official Code § 1-204.12(a)).
