"§ 50B-2. Institution of civil action; motion for emergency relief; temporary orders; temporary custody.

6 Any person residing in this State may seek relief under this Chapter by filing a civil (a) 7 action or by filing a motion in any existing action filed under Chapter 50 of the General Statutes 8 alleging acts of domestic violence against himself or herself or a minor child who resides with or 9 is in the custody of such person. Any aggrieved party entitled to relief under this Chapter may 10 file a civil action and proceed pro se, without the assistance of legal counsel. The district court 11 division of the General Court of Justice shall have original jurisdiction over actions instituted 12 under this Chapter. Any action for a domestic violence protective order requires that a summons 13 be issued and served. The summons issued pursuant to this Chapter shall require the defendant 14 to answer within 10 days of the date of service. Attachments to the summons shall include the 15 complaint, notice of hearing, any temporary or ex parte order that has been issued, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be served. filed. 16 17 In compliance with the federal Violence Against Women Act, no court costs or attorneys' fees shall be assessed for the filing, issuance, registration, or service of a protective order or petition 18 19 for a protective order or witness subpoena, except as provided in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 11.

20 (b) Emergency Relief. – A party may move the court for emergency relief if he or she 21 believes there is a danger of serious and immediate injury to himself or herself or a minor child. 22 A hearing on a motion for emergency relief, where no ex parte order is entered, shall be held 23 after five days' notice of the hearing to the other party or after five days from the date of service 24 of process on the other party, whichever occurs first, provided, however, that no hearing shall be 25 required if the service of process is not completed on the other party. If the party is proceeding 26 pro se and does not request an ex parte hearing, the clerk shall set a date for hearing and issue a 27 notice of hearing within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall effect service of 28 the summons, complaint, notice, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement 29 agency agency, if in North Carolina, where the defendant is to be served.

SECTION 9.(c) This section becomes effective December 1, 2025, and applies to service of process occurring on or after that date.
MODIFY PROVISIONS RELATED TO JUVENILE CUSTODY SECTION 10.(a) G.S. 7B-1903 reads as rewritten:
"§ 7B-1903. Criteria for secure or nonsecure custody.
(a) When a request is made for nonsecure custody, the court shall first consider release of the juvenile to the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or other responsible adult. An order for nonsecure custody shall be made only when there is a reasonable factual basis to believe the matters alleged in the petition petition, indictment, or information are true, and that: that either of the following circumstances exists:
(1) The juvenile is a runaway and consents to nonsecure custody; or custody.
(2) The juvenile meets one or more of the criteria for secure custody, but the court finds it in the best interests of the juvenile that the juvenile be placed in a nonsecure placement.
(b) When a request is made for secure custody, the court may order secure custody only where the court finds there is a reasonable factual basis to believe that the juvenile committed the offense as alleged in the petition, indictment, or information, and that one of the following circumstances exists:
(3) The juvenile has willfully failed to appear on a pending delinquency $\underline{o}$ criminal charge or on charges of violation of probation or post-release supervision, providing the juvenile was properly notified.
(4) A delinquency or criminal charge is pending against the juvenile, and there is reasonable cause to believe the juvenile will not appear in court.
SECTION 10.(b) G.S. 7B-1904 reads as rewritten:
"§ 7B-1904. Order for secure or nonsecure custody.
(a) The custody order shall be in writing and shall direct a law enforcement officer or juvenile court counselor to assume custody of the juvenile and to make due return on the order.
(b) An initial order for secure custody may be issued following the filing of the petition and before the juvenile has been served with the petition pursuant to G.S. 7B-1806. The official executing the order shall give a copy of the order to the juvenile and the juvenile's parent guardian, or custodian. If the juvenile has not been served with the petition upon being detained the juvenile shall be served with the petition no more than 72 hours after the juvenile has been detained. If the order is for nonsecure custody, the official executing the order shall also give a copy of the petition and order to the person or agency with whom the juvenile is being placed. It the order is for secure custody, copies of the petition and custody order shall accompany the juvenile to the detention facility or holdover facility of the jail. A message of the Department of Public Safety stating that a juvenile petition and secure custody order relating to a specified juvenile are on file in a particular county shall be authority to detain the juvenile in secure custody until a copy of the juvenile petition and secure custody order can be forwarded to the juvenile detention facility. The copies of the juvenile petition and secure custody order shall be transmitted to the detention facility no later than 72 hours after the initial detention of the juvenile.
(c) An initial order for secure custody may be issued when the superior court has ordered the removal of a case to juvenile court pursuant to G.S. 15A-960. The official executing the order shall give a copy of the order to the juvenile and the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian. If the order is for nonsecure custody, the official executing the order shall also give a copy of the order to remove the case from superior court and nonsecure custody order to the person or agency with whom the juvenile is being placed. If the order is for secure custody, copies of the order to

30 MODIFY LAW GOVERNING ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES OF COURT 31 DOCUMENTS

32 SECTION 11.4. Notwithstanding any provision of law or rule to the contrary, the 33 chief district court judge and the senior resident superior court judge of their respective districts 34 may establish rules to allow for the court's manual signature of orders, judgments, decrees, or 35 other documents to be filed by the court if one or more of the parties to a proceeding requests the 36 court's manual signature. Any rule implemented pursuant to this section shall not require the 37 court's manual signature of any order, judgment, decree, or other document to be filed by the 38 court unless one or more of the parties to a proceeding requests the court's manual signature. 39 Where manual signatures are permitted, the party obtaining the court's manual signature shall 40 bear sole responsibility for filing the executed document with the clerk through eFile and Serve. 41 This section does not apply to criminal judgments. For purposes of this section, the term "manual 42 signature" means the act of physically signing a paper document with a pen, pencil, or other 43 writing utensil.
