6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 65.2-105 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 65.2-105. Presumption that certain injuries arose out of and in the course of employment.

9 A. In any claim for compensation, where the employee (i) is physically or mentally unable to testify
10 as confirmed by competent medical evidence, (ii) dies with there being no evidence that he ever
11 regained consciousness after the accident, (iii) dies at the accident location or nearby, or (iv) is found
12 dead where he is reasonably expected to be as an employee, and where the factual circumstances are of 13 sufficient strength from which the only rational inference to be drawn is that the accident arose out of 14 and in the course of employment, it shall be presumed the accident arose out of and in the course of 15 employment, unless such presumption is overcome by a preponderance of competent evidence to the 16 contrary.

17 B. In any claim for compensation, where the employee suffers an unexplained fall in the course of 18 employment, the employee may satisfy the burden of proof by circumstantial evidence, testimony of 19 others, other evidence, or any combination thereof.
