AN ACT to amend the real property law and the real property actions and proceedings law, in relation to the foreclosure of liens for unpaid assessments due to a homeowners' association or condominium board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1     Section 1. Section 339-aa of the real property law, as amended by 2 chapter 104 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:
3     § 339-aa. Lien for common charges; duration; foreclosure. The lien
4 provided for in [the immediately preceding] section three hundred thir-
5 ty-nine-z of this article shall be effective from and after the filing
6 in the office of the recording officer in which the declaration is filed 7 a verified notice of lien stating the name (if any) and address of the 8 property, the liber and page of record of the declaration, the name of 9 the record owner of the unit, the unit designation, the amount and 10 purpose for which due, and the date when due; and shall continue in 11 effect until all sums secured thereby, with the interest thereon, shall 12 have been fully paid or until expiration six years from the date of 13 filing, whichever occurs sooner. In the event that unpaid common charges 14 are due, any member of the board of managers may file a notice of lien
15 as described herein if no notice of lien has been filed within sixty 16 days after the unpaid charges are due. Upon such payment the unit owner 17 shall be entitled to an instrument duly executed and acknowledged certi-
18 fying to the fact of payment. Such lien may be foreclosed by suit
19 authorized by and brought in the name of the board of managers, acting 20 on behalf of the unit owners, in like manner as a mortgage of real prop-21 erty pursuant to article thirteen of the real property actions and 22 proceedings law, without the necessity, however, of naming as a party
23 defendant any person solely by reason of his owning a common interest
24 with respect to the property. The board of managers shall be required

2 commencement of a foreclosure proceeding at the property address and any 3 other address of record. Such notice shall be in fourteen-point type and 4 shall inform the owner that the board intends to file an action for 5 foreclosure to enforce the lien and shall state the address of the prop-
6 erty and the specific amount due. In any such foreclosure the unit owner
7 shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the unit for any period

17 to recover a money judgment.

18 Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, if a municipal 19 corporation acquires title to a unit as a result of tax enforcement 20 proceedings, such municipal corporation shall not be liable for and 21 shall not be subject to suit for recovery of the common charges applica-22 ble to such unit during the period while title to such unit is held by 23 the municipal corporation or for the payment of any rental for the unit
24 under the provisions of this section, except to the extent of any rent 25 arising from such unit received by such municipal corporation during such period.

27 Except as herein specifically provided, nothing contained herein shall 28 affect or impair or release the unit from the lien for such common 29 charges or impair or diminish the rights of the manager or the board of 30 managers on behalf of the unit owners under this section and section 31 three hundred thirty-nine-z.
