If 20 the district court undertakes such a review, a hearing shall be held pursuant to this section at 21 which the director shall have the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the evidence abuse 22 or serious neglect and the identification of the individual seeking judicial review as a responsible 23 individual. If the court concludes that the director has not established by a preponderance of the 24 evidence abuse or serious neglect or the identification of the responsible individual, the court 25 shall reverse the director's determination and order the director to expunge the individual's name 26 from the responsible individuals list." 27 SECTION 18.(b) Chapter 7B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read: 28 29 "§ 7B-325. Petition for expungement. 30 A person whose name has been placed on the responsible individuals list may file a (a) petition for expungement of the individual's name from the responsible individuals list if the 31 32 following conditions are satisfied: 33 At least one year has passed since the person was placed on the responsible (1)34 individuals list without judicial review, though eligible for review. 35 At least three years have passed since the person was placed on the responsible (2) 36 individuals list after judicial review. 37 At least five years have passed since the person, who was criminally convicted (3) 38 as a result of the same incident that placed the person on the responsible 39 individuals list completed their sentence, complied with all post-release 40 conditions and has not subsequently been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of the United States 41 42 or the laws of this State or any other state. No person is eligible to petition for expungement under this subsection if the conviction is related to sexual abuse 43 44 of a child, human trafficking, or a child fatality related to abuse or neglect. The petition for expungement shall be filed with the district court of the county in 45 (b) which the abuse or serious neglect report arose. A copy shall be delivered in person or by certified 46 47 mail, return receipt requested, to the director of the county department of social services of that 48 county. The petition for expungement shall contain the name, date of birth, and address of the individual seeking expungement, the name of the juvenile who was the subject of the 49 determination of abuse or serious neglect, and facts that invoke the jurisdiction of the court. 50

General Assembly Of North Carolina Session 2023 1 The clerk of court shall maintain a separate docket for expungement actions. Upon (c) 2 the filing of a petition for expungement, the clerk shall calendar the matter for hearing within 45 3 days from the date the petition is filed at a session of district court hearing juvenile matters or, if 4 there is no such session, at the next session of juvenile court. The clerk shall send notice of the 5 hearing to the petitioner and to the director of the county department of social services that 6 determined the abuse or serious neglect and identified the individual as a responsible individual. 7 Upon the request of a party, the court shall close the hearing to all persons, except officers of the 8 court, the parties, and their witnesses. The hearing shall be before a judge without a jury. The 9 burden shall be upon the petitioner and all findings of fact shall be based on clear and convincing evidence. The rules of evidence applicable in civil cases shall apply. However, the court, in its 10 11 discretion, may permit the admission of any reliable and relevant evidence if the general purposes 12 of the rules of evidence and the interests of justice will best be served by its admission. 13 At the hearing, the following rights of the parties shall be preserved: (d) 14 The right to present sworn evidence, law, or rules that bear upon the case. (1) 15 The right to represent themselves or obtain the services of an attorney at their (2)16 own expense. 17 The right to subpoena witnesses, cross-examine witnesses of the other party, (3) and make a closing argument summarizing the party's view of the case and 18 19 the law. 20 In considering whether to grant a petition filed under this section, the court shall (e) 21 consider: 22 (1)The nature of the abuse or serious neglect. 23 (2)The amount of time since the placement on the responsible individuals list. 24 (3) Any activities that would reflect upon the person's changed behavior or 25 circumstances, such as therapy, employment, or education. 26 (4) Any other circumstances relevant to whether the petition should be granted. 27 The court may grant the petition if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, (f) 28 that there is little likelihood that the petitioner will be a future perpetrator of child abuse or 29 neglect. 30 Within 30 days after completion of the hearing, the court shall enter an order (g) containing findings of fact and conclusions of law. The clerk shall serve a copy of the order on 31 32 each party or the party's attorney of record. If the court concludes that the petition should be 33 granted, the court shall order the director to expunge the individual's name from the responsible 34 individuals list. 35 A party may appeal the district court's decision under G.S. 7A-27(b)(2)." (h) 36 SECTION 19.(a) G.S. 7B-305 reads as rewritten: 37 "§ 7B-305. Request for review by prosecutor.
