22 customized, artistic, expressive, creative, ministerial, spiritual, or in any 23 other way protected activities.

24 (2) It is the intent of the General Assembly:

25 (a) To foster, encourage, promote, and protect the exercise of protected rights
26 by all persons so that civil rights, privileges, and property shall not be taken 27 away or diminished on account of a person's belief or disbelief in any

- 1 religious tenant, dogma, or teaching;
- 2 (b) That the government shall not substantially burden a person's freedom of
- 3 religion or any other protected rights absent clear and convincing evidence
- 4 of a compelling governmental interest furthered by the least restrictive
- 5 means;
- 6 (c) To recognize that the protected rights of all persons are not finite and must
- 7 first be preserved and then expanded equally to all;
- 8 (d) To recognize that our country was founded on two (2) self-evident truths:
- 9 that all persons are created equal and are endowed by their creator with
- 10 certain unalienable rights;
- 11 (e) To recognize that the government may not diminish personal and individual
- 12 freedoms, or diminish equality;
- 13 (f) That the government shall not compel actions, goods, services, judgments,

- 26 ordinance, order, judgment, or other law or action by any court, commission, or
- 27 other public agency shall impair, impede, infringe upon, or otherwise restrict the

1 exercise of protected rights by any protected activity provider.

2 (4) No protected activity provider shall be fined, imprisoned, held in contempt, or
3 otherwise punished or held liable for damages, costs, expenses, or attorney fees
4 by any court, commission, or public agency for:

5 (a) Actions or inactions arising from or related to providing protected activities;

6 or

7 (b) Refusing to provide protected activities;

8 unless a court finds that the complaining person or the government, as the case
9 may be, proved by clear and convincing evidence that the person or the 10 government had a compelling governmental interest in infringing upon the 11 specific act or refusal to act and had used the least restrictive means to further 12 that interest.

13 (5) This section shall not apply to the provision of standard goods or services:

14 (a) In the ordinary course of business; or

15 (b) At a place of public accommodation, resort, or amusement.
