  (ii) coordinate school use of existing financial and economic literacy education resources;
  (iii) develop simple, clear, and consistent messaging to reinforce and link existing financial literacy resources;
  (iv) coordinate the efforts of school, work, private, nonprofit, and other financial education providers in implementing methods of appropriately communicating to teachers, students, and parents key financial and economic literacy messages; and
  (v) encourage parents and students to establish higher education savings, including a Utah Educational Savings Plan account;
  (d) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, make rules to develop guidelines and methods for school districts and charter schools to more fully integrate financial and economic literacy education into other core standards for Utah public schools courses;
  (e) (i) contract with a provider, through a request for proposals process, to develop an online, end-of-course assessment for the general financial literacy course;
(iii) require a school district or charter school to administer an online, end-of-course assessment to a student who takes the general financial literacy course; and (iii) develop a plan, through the state superintendent of public instruction, to analyze the results of an online, end-of-course assessment in general financial literacy that includes:
(A) an analysis of assessment results by standard; and
(B) average scores statewide and by school district and school;
(f) in cooperation with school districts, charter schools, and interested private and nonprofit entities, provide opportunities for professional development in financial and economic literacy to teachers, including:
(i) a statewide learning community for financial and economic literacy;
(ii) summer workshops; and
(iii) online videos of experts in the field of financial and economic literacy education;
and
(g) implement a teacher endorsement in general financial literacy that includes course work in financial planning, credit and investing, consumer economics, personal budgeting, and family economics.
(3) A public school shall provide the following to the parents or guardian of a kindergarten student during kindergarten enrollment:
(a) a financial and economic literacy passport; and
(b) information about higher education savings options, including information about opening a Utah Educational Savings Plan account.
(4) (a) The State Board of Education shall establish a task force to study and make recommendations to the board on how to improve financial and economic literacy education in the public school system.
(b) The task force membership shall include representatives of:
(i) the State Board of Education;
(ii) school districts and charter schools; [and]
(i) the State Board of Regents; and

[(iii) (iv) private or public entities that teach financial education and share a commitment to empower individuals and families to achieve economic stability, opportunity, and upward mobility.

(c) In 2013, the task force shall:

(i) review and recommend modifications to the course standards and objectives of the general financial literacy course described in Section 53A-13-108 to ensure the course standards and objectives reflect current and relevant content consistent with the financial and economic literacy concepts listed in Subsection (1)(b);

(ii) study the development of an online assessment of students' competency in financial and economic literacy that may be used to:

(A) measure student learning growth and proficiency in financial and economic literacy; and
