

MEET FOURSQUARE'S NEW DISTRICT SUPERVISORS

Chanda Crutcher, Atlantic District Supervisor

Chanda Crutcher is the founder of American Senior Assistance Programs, the founder and associate pastor of the Legacy Center, and missional pastor at Restoration Foursquare Church (Huntsville Foursquare Church) in Huntsville, Alabama. An ordained Foursquare minister and soon-to-be graduate of Life Pacific University (MASL), Chanda is an excellent communicator, dedicated developer of people, and committed servant to Jesus and His church. Her decades of experience in the marketplace and 11 years in ministry forges a compelling perspective for ways to encourage, equip, mobilize, and join with others to follow Jesus and His mission. Chanda and Darrell, her husband of nearly 20 years, love doing ministry together with their five children.

Antonio Sims, Central District Supervisor

Antonio Sims is the founder and senior pastor of True Worship Church (Ferndale Metro Foursquare Church), which has been serving the community of Detroit, Mich., for over 10 years. An ordained Foursquare minister, Antonio has served as a board member for Foursquare and International Hope Center. His passion is to spark transformation at every level—organizations, cities and hearts. A mentor and coach to church planters, Antonio brings his business acumen—he has an MBA—and ministry focus, along with extensive travel and trials as a Marine with the Marine Corp. Born in Vietnam, Antonio grew up in Detroit. He and his wife, Nina, have six children.

Martin Ruarte, National Hispanic District Supervisor

Martin Ruarte has served the local church in various roles, from administrator to co-pastor and church planter at the local level and as assistant supervisor and as the Hispanic and multiethnic director at the district level. He is passionate about building bridges between cultures and empowering leaders in their calling. Martin moved to the U.S. from Mendoza, Argentina, at 20-years-old, and immediately graduated from a local church Bible institute. He then obtained Foursquare credentials in 2004, earned a Bachelor of Science in Business with a focus in Accounting in 2012, became a CPA in 2015, and graduated from LPU with a Master of Arts in Strategic Leadership in 2019. He has been married to Angela for 18 years; they have three children.

Sheldon Lacsina, Pacific District Supervisor

Sheldon Lacsina is the lead pastor of New Hope Hilo Hawaii (Hilo Foursquare Church) in Hilo, Hawaii. In addition to serving many roles in the local church—youth, young adults, AV director and executive pastor—he has served as an area pastor to the Big Island and Maui Division. Sheldon has completed various courses and certifications, including those in hermeneutics, doctrine and ministerial leadership, as well as coursework at The King's College (now called The King's University) in Van Nuys, Calif. Sheldon is a frequent speaker at camps, conferences, retreats and conventions, including the Foursquare National Convention in Sri Lanka. He has served on the Foursquare Missions Committee and enjoys all forms of art, basketball and running. Sheldon and his wife, Heidi, have two sons and three grandsons.

Dave Edler, Northwest Interim District Supervisor*

Dave Edler was the associate supervisor for the Northwest District, served on the ICFG board of directors, and is the chair of the missions committee. He and his wife, Susie, live in Yakima, Wash., where Dave was the senior pastor at Yakima Foursquare. They transitioned the church to their son and daughter-in-law, Jacob and Chantal, in April 2019. Dave is heavily involved in his community, where he has served as the Mayor of Yakima. During his time as mayor, Yakima saw a reduction in crime rates, increased redevelopment investment, and improved the city's public image. Dave is passionate about planting churches and developing strong and healthy leaders.

Billy Calderwood, Western District Supervisor

Billy Calderwood is the lead pastor of Media City Church (Burbank Foursquare Church) in Burbank, Calif. In 24 years of vocational ministry, Billy has served as church multiplication coordinator for the Southern California District, as well as roles that have emphasized NextGen, developing a culture of discipleship, leadership development, engaging post-Christian culture, and performing arts and media. In addition to earning a degree in organizational leadership from Azusa Pacific University and a master's degree from Life Pacific College, he is a gifted communicator and has a passion for seeing lives transformed, laborers sent into the harvest field, and leaders multiplied. He is married to Kristin, and they have three children.

