

10 Ways to Pray for the Persecuted Church

The first request of persecuted believers around the world is “Pray for us!”

We must heed this plea, as prayer not only provides spiritual strength, protection and comfort to those enduring persecution but also fosters a sense of solidarity and support among believers globally, reminding us of our interconnectedness in the body of Christ.

Pray for Protection: Ask for God's protection over persecuted Christians, shielding them from physical harm, violence, and discrimination.

Pray for Strength and Endurance: Pray for strength and endurance for persecuted believers, that they may remain steadfast in their faith amidst trials and persecution.

Pray for Comfort and Peace: Pray for God's comfort and peace to envelop persecuted Christians, especially those facing imprisonment, loss, or trauma.

Pray for Provision: Pray for provision of basic needs such as food, shelter, and medical care for persecuted believers and their families.

Pray for Courage and Boldness: Pray for courage and boldness for persecuted Christians to continue proclaiming the Gospel despite opposition and threats.

Pray for Justice and Advocacy: Pray for justice to prevail and for advocacy efforts to protect the rights and freedoms of persecuted believers.

Pray for Persecutors: Pray for the hearts of those who persecute Christians, that they may encounter the love of Christ and turn away from violence and oppression.

Pray for Leaders and Pastors: Pray for wisdom, guidance, and protection for church leaders and pastors in persecuted regions as they shepherd their congregations.

Pray for Revival and Spiritual Strength: Pray for revival and spiritual strength within the persecuted church, that they may continue to grow and flourish amidst adversity.

Pray for Global Awareness and Unity: Pray for increased global awareness of the plight of persecuted Christians and for unity among believers in supporting and standing with them.

10 Ways to Pray for the Persecuted Church

The first request of persecuted believers around the world is “Pray for us!”

We must heed this plea, as prayer not only provides spiritual strength, protection and comfort to those enduring persecution but also fosters a sense of solidarity and support among believers globally, reminding us of our interconnectedness in the body of Christ.

Pray for Protection: Ask for God's protection over persecuted Christians, shielding them from physical harm, violence, and discrimination.

Pray for Strength and Endurance: Pray for strength and endurance for persecuted believers, that they may remain steadfast in their faith amidst trials and persecution.

Pray for Comfort and Peace: Pray for God's comfort and peace to envelop persecuted Christians, especially those facing imprisonment, loss, or trauma.

Pray for Provision: Pray for provision of basic needs such as food, shelter, and medical care for persecuted believers and their families.

Pray for Courage and Boldness: Pray for courage and boldness for persecuted Christians to continue proclaiming the Gospel despite opposition and threats.

Pray for Justice and Advocacy: Pray for justice to prevail and for advocacy efforts to protect the rights and freedoms of persecuted believers.

Pray for Persecutors: Pray for the hearts of those who persecute Christians, that they may encounter the love of Christ and turn away from violence and oppression.

Pray for Leaders and Pastors: Pray for wisdom, guidance, and protection for church leaders and pastors in persecuted regions as they shepherd their congregations.

Pray for Revival and Spiritual Strength: Pray for revival and spiritual strength within the persecuted church, that they may continue to grow and flourish amidst adversity.

Pray for Global Awareness and Unity: Pray for increased global awareness of the plight of persecuted Christians and for unity among believers in supporting and standing with them.
