RECOMMENDED READING

The Multiplication Effect by Mac Lake

A step-by-step leadership pipeline for solving a leadership shortage, strong on systems, mentoring, structured development, and long-term sustainability. Best for churches that need a scalable, intentional development process.

Hero Maker by Dave Ferguson and Warren Bird

Creating a leadership culture that empowers others and celebrates their success. Best for leaders shifting from being the “hero” to being a leader-maker.

Leading at the Speed of Growth by Katherine Catlin and Jana Matthews. A personal growth map that helps a lead pastor diagnose their church’s growth stage, adapt their own role as the church grows, and avoid burnout by redefining that role over time.

Healthy Leaders by Malcolm Webber. The character-calling-competence framework that anchors this pathway.

Discipling and Multiplying Leaders \(Stage 2\) by John L. Amstutz

This book equips church leaders to intentionally develop and reproduce mature disciples. It emphasizes mentoring relationships, character formation, spiritual disciplines, and the leadership skills necessary for multiplication. It offers practical tools for guiding emerging leaders toward greater responsibility, mission focus, and sustainable kingdom impact.

Disciples of All Nations: A Reader, compiled by John L. Amstutz

A collection of missions articles from more than three dozen authors. The writings of these practitioners and missiologists describe and explain the biblical pattern of the advance of the gospel that has characterized the expansion of the Christian movement from the first century onward.
