The “Why”

When a family prays together, faith traditions are passed on to a younger generation, transparent conversations reduce tension in relationships, and family unit is cultivated. This resource provides families an easy-to-follow calendar with daily themes surrounding our Foursquare doctrines. They can keep it in their car, place it on their fridge, or put it anywhere that fits within a normal family rhythm to grab it and pray together daily.

Prep List

Things to gather:

- Printer paper (cardstock recommended)
- Scissors

How to:

- Print a calendar for each family
- Optional: Cut around the printed calendar
- Print the “Family Guide” for each family

How to Share with Group

We have a resource for your family designed to give you a simple, daily prayer focus to read/pray together. You can do this whenever it works for your family:

- Keep it in your vehicle to use during your commute
- Put it on the refrigerator for morning time
- Store it on the table for dinner prayer

You can use this same calendar as often as you want, according to what day of the month it is.

Family Guide

Why?

When a family prays together, faith traditions are passed on to a younger generation, connections are strengthened, transparent conversations reduce tension in relationships, and family unity is cultivated. A habit of praying together knits family members' hearts to the Lord and to one another!

How?

The prayer calendar provides your family with an easy-to-use format, featuring daily themes. Simply read the prayer listed on the corresponding day of the month, i.e. on the 16th of the month, read what's in the number 16 box. Each day has a prayer, theme, and a scripture reference to review if you are able.

When?

Anytime! Use it whenever and wherever it fits your schedule. It might be during your commute, getting ready first thing in the morning, or at the dinner table. It works anytime that fits your family's schedule.

What's next?

We hope you and your family have enjoyed developing a daily rhythm of prayer together. Be encouraged to use this calendar month after month, to continue praying together and add in personal needs and gratitude along the way. The possibilities are endless when we pray!

If this was difficult for your family, we understand. How about trying instead to add a short prayer onto a habit that your family already has? It could look like a note with a prayer on your toothbrush or silverware drawer. Be encouraged that even little habits lead to big faith!
