Ccap redetermination form louisiana

Help us protect the children of Lusia. Child Abuse & Negligence: 1-855-4LA-kids (1-855-452-5437) toll-free, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, one week DCFS has upgraded the technology system behind our caffy self-service portal or to achieve the benefits of SNAP, Sherpa, LeAP, Cooksup and Child Support. An upgrade, on Friday afternoon, February 26, interacts with Kasiuvarcaras Easy, enhances access to applicants and recipients for information and improves our overall service delivery. Contact directly with questions about SNAP, The Kasiworavaras AP and/or Caskup cases can be sent directly to Kasiuvaravaras from within the Cifae Selfsavaraoka portal. Electronic notifications you can now sign up to get paper notices about your picture, your SNAP and/or caskcase in your own service portal of your stake. You will also receive an email and/or text notification when a new notice is available in your own service account on your own. Note: Not everyone will be immediately transferred to the upgrade dais. DFFS is transferring new caffies to the self-service portal in all cases stages. We started this process with a pilot test period november 18, 2019, and will continue to transfer cases to the new system over the next few months until all customers are using the new system. How do I know if I'm in the new camera or the original sanctomy system? Go to www.ddfs.la.gov/caffe, and enter the reason for your visit (for example, new application, re-determination, case status, etc.) and your personal information. After that, you will be directed to either the new camera system or the original the mef system. The new camera system has a green background and the nearest to the top of the screen is the camera self-service portal label. The original camera system has a blue/grey background and is labeled the nearest caffy customer portal at the top of the screen. Note: Customers moving to the upgraded camera must create a new account. DFFS has made several new improvements, including new security measures for the CAFF Self Service Portal. To ensure that every camera account meet the lowest security standards to provide better protection to your information, all customers will have to create new camera accounts when they are directing the new ones self-service portal (Green).
