2024 CHAMPIONSHIP

HIGHLIGHTS

Auburn edges out Florida St. 3-2 in championship match for first team title in school history

CARLSBAD, CALIFORNIA – Auburn edged Florida State, 3-2, winning the team national championship for the first time in school history on the North Course at the Omni La Costa Resort & Spa (7,538 yards/par 72). The tournament championship for Auburn was the 10th of the season for the Tigers, with seven coming consecutively.

Auburn, which had never advanced beyond semifinal match play, improved to 4-1 all-time in NCAA Championship match play with the three wins over the last two days.

Auburn freshman sensation Jackson Koivun improved to 3-0 in match play at the 2024 championship, breaking away from a tie after three holes to close out Brett Roberts of Florida State, 5&4 and put the first point on the board for Auburn. Koivun, the 2024 Fred Haskins Award winner as the national player of the year, had on Tuesday sent Auburn to the national championship match by sinking a five-foot birdie put on the 21st hole to defeat Ohio State, 3-2.

The Tigers second point in the match came from junior Brendan Valdes, who rolled to a 4&3 win over Frederik Kjettrup of Florida State.

With both teams vying for the first team national championship in school history, it came down to the fifth match of the day between Auburn senior J.M. Butler and Florida State sophomore Luke Clanton.

Butler never trailed in the close match and clinched the national championship on hole No. 17 as both he and Clanton had pars. Clanton came close to chipping in for birdie on the hole, but his chip shot from off the green hit the cup and bounced away. Butler then lagged a putt within inches of the cup as the match was conceded, with Butler winning 2&1.
