Announcing Webinar Series 2016: Promising Futures: Enhancing Services for Mothers and their Children Experiencing Domestic Violence

Description:

Futures Without Violence in partnership with the Family and Youth Services Bureau, Family Violence Prevention and Services Program will host a three-part webinar series on how domestic violence programs can enhance their work with survivors of domestic violence and their children by using evidence-based and promising practices.

Webinars:

1. Rescheduled Date: April 13, 2016 | 2:00—3:30 pm EST

Promising Futures: Capacity Assessment for DV/SV Programs for Supporting Children, Youth, and Parents.

This webinar will provide an overview of the Promising Futures: Best Practices for Serving Children, Youth, and Parents Experiencing Domestic Violence website and related tools. The webinar will also discuss a new tool development by the Vermont Network Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Violence that can help domestic violence and sexual assault programs assess their capacity and programming related to supporting parents and their children. This tool will help programs assess and reflect on opportunities for growth and development in their services.

Presenters: Amy Torchia, Vermont Network Against Domestic & Sexual Violence
Mie Fukuda, Futures Without Violence

2. April 19, 2016 | 2:00—3:30 pm EST

Building Promising Futures: Guidelines and Outcome Measures for Enhancing Response of Domestic Violence Programs to Children & Youth.

This webinar will explore two areas of program development. First, presenters will present guidelines for consideration to improve the services to and success of children exposed to domestic violence. Second, presenters will discuss some of the major complexities involved in developing and utilizing outcome measures for DV programs' work with children. Two new resources will be shared—1. Building Promising Futures: Guidelines for Enhancing Response of DV Programs to Children & Youth 2. Developing Outcome Measures for DV Programs' Work With Children & Youth.

Presenters: Eleanor Lyon, Institute for Violence Prevention and Reduction
Anne Menard, National Resource Center on Domestic Violence

3. Rescheduled Date Pending | 2:00—3:30 pm EST

Building Competence and Resilience in Children and Parents: The Advocate as Change Agent.

This webinar will provide an overview of a NEW curriculum developed by Futures Without Violence in partnership with Child Witness to Violence Project. This curriculum is for Domestic Violence Advocates and others who work with victims of domestic violence and their children and is designed to increase the knowledge and skills of advocates with a focus on supporting the child-parent relationship. This webinar will provide practical tools and strategies for working with mothers and their children.
