Florida vs. Georgia Southern Post Game Quotes

Florida Head Coach Steve Spurrier:

Opening comments....

“We had Georgia Southern pretty much out personelled...We were able to score fairly easily most of the game...Defensively we didn't quite play the way we've been playing but we did hold them to 14 points so certainly that was O.K...We were able to score most of the times we had the ball in the first half and of course Cameron Davis got the fumble in mid-air so we were in good shape...I'm sure our defensive coaches are not all that excited by the number of rushing yards they had and the number of first downs but hopefully that will bring us a little bit back down to earth after the first game...We should be able to improve a lot between now and the next time we play...It was a good victory for our guys...I'm really proud of the guys for a good effort tonight...”

On the offense...

“Our offense played pretty well....We had a few sacks there that we didn't think we were going to have against Georgia Southern...Obviously, we had them out manned....They are pretty light on the defensive line and their DB's can't run with our receivers very well so we should have done well...Danny was a lot sharper then he was last week...We are still getting stuck and having some sacks occasionally so we can play a little bit better...We did run the ball better this game...The offensive line played pretty well...Zach Pillar played exceptionally well at right tackle and we gave him a game ball.”

On Danny Wuerffel's performance:

“We all felt like Danny was going to have a sharp night....Obviously he wasn't very sharp last week and he was upset with himself...He knows he is a much better player than last week...He got himself much better prepared to play and lead the team and make a lot of good throws out there tonight.”

Other comments:

“Cameron Davis was awarded our only defensive game ball of the night...It was a good win...We didn't have any serious injuries...Now we can get ready for the conference schedule and we have a week to try to get better and a week to get prepared for Tennessee...After that it's Kentucky and then down the line in the conference...We have to get better and we know it so maybe this game was good for us...”
