GEORGIA SOUTHERN vs. EAST TENNESSEE STATE
Oct. 28, 2000 - Paulson Stadium

GAME QUOTES

Georgia Southern Head Coach Paul Johnson:

"I thought we started slow on offense, but (ETSU) was taking a lot of chances with some blitzes, and sometimes they'll eventually get you when they're doing that. Overall, I thought it was a good win. I was real proud of our defense, especially in the first half. Offensively, we hurt them on the mid-line option. It looked like they were gearing up to stop the triple option a little more, and J.R. (Revere) did a good job opening that up. He had some good reads."

"I was proud of the guys, and I think the coaching staff did a good job getting them in the right spots to make plays."

On Peterson, who left the third quarter with an elbow injury:

"We think he's alright. It's just a precautionary thing, just to make sure. He actually wanted to go back into the game."

On next week's matchup at Furman:

"I'm still not so sure that Furman isn't the best team in the conference. I said that early on, and I haven't really seen anything on film that would make me change my mind. We are a little banged up, so we need to get healthy, get back to work and get ready to give it a whirl next week."

East Tennessee State head coach Paul Hamilton:

"I'm embarrassed because we are a better football team than that. We were concerned coming down here because (Georgia Southern) was playing at home to clinch the Southern Conference title. That is a tough assignment, but I'm still not proud of the way we played today."

"You have to give all the credit to Georgia Southern. They are an outstanding football team."

"J.R. is becoming the quarterback that everyone thought he was going to be. He gives them a chance to be very competitive through the playoffs."

Georgia Southern cornerback Lavar Rainey:

"We always expect to do good. As a defense, our goal is to always put a goose egg on the scoreboard. We didn't do that today, but it was still a valiant effort I thought. As long as we do the things the way we know how, and as long as we stick to the game plan, we should have nothing to worry about."

Georgia Southern quarterback J.R. Revere:

"On the first series, we really saw that they were going to try to take (Adrian Peterson) out of the offense, and that was the way they were going to beat us. I knew that I had to step it up. It's all about making good reads. Our offense is hard to defend if we do it right."

"I'm greedy, but I think Coach Johnson is even more greedy. You know, we were all excited when we saw that we were going to start passing a little bit. I told the receivers 'alright boys, it's time to go to work.' As long as I'm on the same page as Chris Johnson and Derrick Owens and Titus Johnson, then we can make it work. It also opens up the option even more."

Oct. 28, 2000 - Allen E. Paulson Stadium

GAME NOTES

Georgia Southern's victory today marks the 28th straight win at Allen E. Paulson Stadium -- ranking as the fifth-longest winning streak in NCAA history ... GS currently owns the division's record, winning 38 straight from 1985 to 1990.

With J.R. Revere's 48-yard touchdown pass to Chris Johnson in the third quarter, the Georgia Southern offense completed a touchdown pass for the seventh time in eight games.

With his 48-yard touchdown reception from J.R. Revere, Chris Johnson moved into a second-place tie with Tony Belser (1985-88) on the all-time GS career list with 12 touchdown receptions ... Also, with Johnson's TD catch, he moves into a first-place tie with Corey Joyner (7 in 1997) on the GS single-season list.

With Lavar Rainey's 49-yard interception return in the first quarter, Georgia Southern returned an interception for a score for the second consecutive game ... The last time that took place was on Nov. 1, 1997 (Larry Rogers, 23-yard TD return at East Tennessee State) and Nov. 8, 1997 (Hal Carter, 62-yard TD return vs. Furman).

With his 106 rushing yards, Adrian Peterson reached the century mark for the 39th consecutive game. His regular-season streak of 31 straight games equals the I-A record set by Archie Griffin (31) of Ohio State from 1973-75.

With his 106 rushing yards, Adrian Peterson has now rushed for 5,100 career yards, becoming just one of 10 I-AA players in history to reach the milestone .. He has now rushed for 6,555 overall (playoffs included) career yards in 39 games.

With his fourth-quarter interception, senior CB Nate Gates tied an Eagle single-season record with his sixth interception of the season ... Randell Boone (1989), Jim Mutimer (1991) and Arkee Thompson (1998) also recorded six pass thefts.

With Chris Johnson's two-point conversion pass to Derrick Owens, it marks the first time the Eagles have completed a pass for a point-after conversion since December 7, 1985, when Tracy Ham completed a two-point pass to Monty Sharpe vs. Middle Tennessee State in the quarterfinals of the I-AA playoffs.

Georgia Southern's 310 rushing yards are the most by the Eagles in the first half this season ... The previous first-half high was 235 vs. VMI on Sept. 30, 2000.
