THE CITADEL 6, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 14

=====

GEORGIA SOUTHERN vs. THE CITADEL
October 20, 2001 - Allen E. Paulson Stadium

GAME NOTES

The Citadel recorded 21:45 (of 30 minutes) in time of possession in the second half while holding Georgia Southern to 58 total yards in the half.

The 14 points scored by Georgia Southern equals the lowest scoring output by the Eagles at Paulson Stadium in the Paul Johnson era.

The Georgia Southern win extended their home winning streak to 36 games, two shy of their own NCAA record of 38 (1985-1990).

With 140 yards, Adrian Peterson has rushed for over 100 yards in 49 of 50 overall collegiate games and in 37 of 38 regular-season contests.

With the win, Georgia Southern coach Paul Johnson kept his home SoCon record perfect at 19-0.

The last time Georgia Southern was out-gained in total yards for two games in a row was Nov. 29 and Dec. 6, 1997 against Florida A&M (583 total yards to 482) and Delaware (309-296) respectively. Last week, Appalachian State out-gained GSU 308 total yards to 254.

Melvin Cox finished with a career-high 101 yards on 13 carries in his first career start at quarterback.

The Eagles placed two runners over 100 rushing yards for the third time this season.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN vs. THE CITADEL
October 20, 2001 -- Paulson Stadium

Georgia Southern Head Coach Paul Johnson:

"The time of possession was huge. I'd like to apologize today to all the fans that came out. That was an ugly way to play. I guarantee you practice next week will be a lot more intense."

"I thought Melvin did a nice job. The way we played today certainly wasn't his fault."

We had a lot of big plays and a lot of yards called back because of penalties. We've got to do a better job of coaching and do a better job of not holding."

Georgia Southern senior fullback Adrian Peterson:

"I had some long runs called back and that kind of took away our momentum. We'll try to clean it up and get better next week."

The Citadel Head Coach Ellis Johnson:

"Georgia Southern's speed was the key to their success early. We did not get adjusted until late in the first quarter. They're really physical as a team, but I think their defense got tired late and that was a major factor in us keeping the game close late. We really competed today and kept ourselves in the game against a far more talented football team in Georgia Southern."

On the kicking game:

"We have been inconsistent in our kicking game this season and it hurt us today."

On holding Georgia Southern to the lowest point total in the Paul Johnson era at home:

"Our kid's character and effort was the key to stopping their offense and I have to attribute that to all of our players."
