GAME NOTES
Georgia Southern vs. East Tennessee State
November 2, 2002

The 120 total yards allowed by Georgia Southern was the fifth lowest total yard accumulation by an opponent in the history of the program.

With 142 yards rushing, Chaz Williams became the first quarterback in GSU history to rush over 100-yards in six straight games.

Chaz Williams set a new career-high with a 71-yard run in the first half. The run broke his previous best of 59, accomplished twice (vs. Chattanooga, 2001 and at The Citadel, 2002).

Kevin Davis set career highs in rushing yards (52) and career longest run (52t).

Jonathan Woodham's blocked punt was the seventh blocked kick by Georgia Southern this year and the fourth in the last two games. The seven blocks include three blocked punts, three blocked PAT's, and one blocked field goal.

East Tennessee State's 14-yards rushing in the first half marked a season-best for the Georgia Southern defense.

East Tennessee State's fumble return for a touchdown was the first allowed by Georgia Southern since December 8, 2001 vs. Appalachian State in the NCAA I-AA Playoffs.

GAME QUOTES
Georgia Southern vs. East Tennessee State
November 2, 2002

Georgia Southern Head Coach Mike Sewak:

"This game was a true credit to our defensive unit. I appreciate the job that they did today. It was an honor to be a member of the Georgia Southern defense today. It says a lot that they held a good East Tennessee State offense to 67 yards rushing."

"I thought Chaz (Williams) did a good job of rallying the troops after the first drive. ETSU was doing a good job of taking away the perimeter and we had to change our blocking scheme. Chaz did a great job of making the adjustments and taking control of the game."

"Freddy (Pesqueria) is a warrior. It was great to have him out there. He definitely makes a difference for us."

"I can't tell you how hard this team has worked over the last month. After the Wofford game we were about as low as we have ever been, but since then we have worked hard and played hard every day. It is a true credit to the team. One of the things I am proudest of is that all you ever hear around the kids is 'us' and 'we'. This is a team in the truest sense of the word."

East Tennessee Head Coach Paul Hamilton:

"This was a tough day for us. We knew coming in that it was going to be a difficult situation."

"Our team is tired. We have played 10 straight weeks as well as three pre-season weeks. I saw some fatigue today, both physically and mentally."

"We are going to accept what happened today. We have two conference games left and we are going to try and end the season on a positive note."

"They are very athletic on the defensive front and we had some problems standing in the pocket. They jammed our receivers well and we just could not get the ball down field."

"I knew it was going to be uphill for us all day. Against the athleticism that they have defensively, I knew every snap was going to be a dog-fight for us."
