ARLENE Oquendo has worked at PG Orlando for 9 years as the Central Supply Clerk. She is unique in that she will do anything anyone needs and always has a smile on her face. She is special as she is a tremendous team player and always goes above and beyond. Arlene builds strong relationships with the residents, family members, and staff, as she does exceptional room rounds and always participates and assists with the staff & resident events. she comes on weekends if she is off to make sure the staff have what they need. She is passionate about ensuring the staff have enough supplies and residents have what is needed. She works well with admissions to ensure new admits have a smooth transition. She does so many little things that keep the center running smooth and I truly appreciate her for this.
