*The star in the sky is shining so bright,
It gives the shepherds a sign & the Kings light.
Joseph can't take his eyes of the little baby, Neither can those who have come to meet this miracle born from Virgin Mary.
Mamma Mary smiles down at her sweet little child,
His lips too stretch into a smile on his face so mild.
Merry Christmas to you dear!*

ACTIVITY NEWS

Merry Christmas from the Pioneer Manor Activities team! It has been a busy and fun filled year. We have had good music, fun programs and have tried to add new things for our residents.

The facility has had some changes with new flooring and paint colors.

December is packed with music, movies, a lot of birthday parties-(7 in all). We will have a lot of treats and fun activities. Our Christmas party is on the 21st and we will have a special visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus who may sing some songs for us.

We have a giving tree down at the Security First Bank with the names of all our residents and we are hoping to get every resident a Christmas present to make this a very special Christmas.

Please remember if you have a special talent or have something to share with the residents, we would love to hear from you!

Thank you!

Danelle Horton, Nancy O'Brien, Char Pudelko, Teri Hunzeker, Jolana Varga

Please Remember that when you bring in a gift for the residents to let staff know so that the items can be marked. All clothing needs to be washed and marked by laundry.

to know, love and care for him.

Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer

Once upon a time, there lived at the North Pole a young reindeer named Rudolph. He was a lively, happy reindeer and loved playing in the snow. But one day, the other reindeer noticed that he had a very large, bright red nose, and they teased him about it without mercy.

Rudolph was sad because it was Christmas Eve and he was afraid that, because of his shiny nose, he would never be chosen to pull Santa's sleigh. He went to visit Santa and Elf, who were getting all their presents ready. They were always kind to Rudolph and never mentioned his funny nose.

At last, Santa boomed, "Elf, I must go now. Let's load up the presents."

When all was ready, Santa asked, "Where are my eight reindeer? I need their strength to pull my sleigh."

Then Santa looked around him and noticed how foggy the night had become. He was worried that he would not be able to see his way. Suddenly he spied Rudolph with his bright red nose, and he had a very bright idea!

"Rudolph," he cried, "I want YOU-with your shiny nose- to light the way for my sleigh tonight!"

The Tiny Reindeer made way for Rudolph. Now everybody loved him and said what a very special reindeer he was. From then on, Rudolph was Santa's first choice every Christmas Eve.

A Visit From St. Nicholas

'Twas the night before Christmas,
when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring,
not even a mouse;
The stockings were hung
by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas
soon would be there;
The children were nestled
all snug in their beds;
While visions of sugar-plums
danced in their heads;
And mamma in her 'kerchief,
and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains
for a long winter's nap...
