Mexican Train is . . .

A game played with number dominoes. The object of the game is for a player to play all the dominoes from his or her hand onto one or more chains, or "trains", emanating from a central hub or "station".

Managers Message

Please welcome the following new residents this month: Rodney and Ann Bunt 210-1, and Donna Golemon 116-2.

October 18th is our annual Bunko fundraiser party for Images of Hope through the Marshall Foundation. You may invite a guest, cost to play is a suggested Donation of $ 25.00, but we will accept whatever you are willing to give. We all wear pink in support of those we know who have fought Breast cancer. There will be refreshments and fun prizes.

On October 25th, we are hosting a Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre: "Champagne Bubbles and Dangerous Dames." Cocktail hour will be in the library from 4-5:15; 5:30 to 7pm will be the dinner theatre in the dining room. At 7pm there will be a dessert bar back in the library. Please see Mary for a free ticket, during the week, or at the front desk on the weekend for this event. Must have your ticket by Oct. 11. If you don't wish to participate, there will be boxed dinner available for pick up or delivery. Sorry, there will only be room for our residents and a few waiting list clients.

Halloween falls on a Thursday this year, so Happy hour will be on October 31st you are welcome to wear a costume and bring candy for any grandkids that stop by to Trick or Treat in our commons building.

Happy October!
Trisha Raines, Manager

October's Party by George Cooper

October gave a party:
The leaves by hundreds came.
The Chestnuts, Oaks and Maples,
And leaves of every name.

Then Sunshine spread a carpet,
And everything was grand.
Miss Weather led the dancing,
Professor Wind the band.

The Chestnuts came in yellow,
The Oaks in crimson dressed:
The lovely Misses Maple
In scarlet looked her best.

All balanced to their partners,
And gaily fluttered by:
The sight was like a rainbow
New fallen from the sky.
