

Daily Prayer

January 5

Reading:

II Timothy 4:9,21.

“Do your best to come to me soon....Do your best to come before winter.”

The apostle, Paul, wrote to his friend and colleague, Timothy, asking him to come to Rome to visit Paul in prison. He voiced some urgency that Timothy “come before winter” when travel on the Mediterranean in that day shut down. There are moments in life where we need to act, or an opportunity for good may be lost. What is one thing you might do today.....for good?

Prayer:

Holy and gracious God, help me today to build on the spark of your goodness that is within me. Allow me to undertake love’s work and to reach out to family and friends and any in need. Make me confident of the transformation that comes through trust in you.

Amen
