

Daily Prayer

July 21

Reading:

Psm 45:6,7

Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever; a scepter of justice will be the scepter of your kingdom. You love righteousness and hate wickedness.

Prayer:

O God, help us to see your righteousness and be changed into your image. Help us to seek righteousness and hate that which is wrong--injustice. Change us to be a better version of ourselves. We are but dust without you, but we are the image of God with you. Help us out of our troubles and bring hope as we seek you. In Christ's name.

Amen
