

Daily Prayer

March 27

Reading:

Psalm 91:2-6

I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings, you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.

Prayer:

Lord, is there nothing to learn from what's happening around me, then to be content with the comfort that you provide? Whatever the reason why I feel the way I do, one thing I am learning: Everything that happens is useful to me. Though a virus is sweeping throughout our lands, I ask you to empower me to go through this with You until I'm a "wounded healer" bringing comfort to others as I receive it from you. Amen.
