

Daily Prayer

March 30

Reading:

HOPE Story: When Alexander the Great was setting out on one of his campaigns, he was distributing numerous gifts to his friends. In his generosity he had given away nearly all his possessions. "Sir", said one of his friends, "you will have nothing left for yourself." "Oh yes I have", said Alexander. I still have my hopes." (Roy B. Zuck)

Prayer:

Almighty and loving God we thank you for your mercy and goodness to us. As we contemplate this day, one thing we are grateful for: the gift of hope, that is just around the corner.

Amen
