

Daily Prayer

March 31

Reading:

I Cor 13:11-13

If I have faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor, and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I am nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never fails.

When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I grew up I put childish ways behind me. Now we see a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

And now, these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest is love.

Prayer:

Oh God, our parents and grandparents have been through wars and pestilence. You proved yourself faithful even in hard times. They found hope through faith in you. Help me to trust you and grow in faith. Help me to find hope and trust you through these times. I want to truly love the way you love... like the way my parents and grandparents loved. Come close. Comfort and heal those in need. In your Son's precious name.

Amen
