

Daily Prayer

May 20

Reading:

Isaiah 43: 1-2; 18-19

“But now says the Lord who created you....’Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters I will be with you, and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you....Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth. Do you not perceive it?’”

Prayer:

Eternal God, promise-giver and promise-keeper: help me to trust in your promises to do a new thing. Turn my mind from excessive worry about the rising tides of conflict and threat and sharpen my eyes to see small signs of your new things right in the midst of current troubles. Then strengthen my confidence that your purposes will finally shape a just and a peaceful future. Help me to claim my place in working toward it.

Amen
