"God's Holy Temple"

Throughout the course of a life, we experience many things.
Many of us make the start of the new year a time to make new resolutions and goals that we reflect upon throughout the year. The Bible says our bodies are temples, and the Holy Ghost resides in us, and as such we must keep our bodies free of things that would not glorify God. As Christians we are children of the light, and we should remember to take inventory of our spiritual and physical bodies throughout the year. We pray unceasingly to Jesus, who renews, confronts, forgives, loves, and nurtures us.
By doing this we shine as a beautiful holy Temple filled with the Holy Spirit and the glory of God who is the author of love, hope, peace, and eternal life that we can share with others. - Rev. Roger Plessen
