Talk About It: St. Paddy's Day

Use this discussion topic to reminisce about your past. Talk with friends about your memories and learn how everyone's experiences were similar or different:

- Forty million Americans claim Irish ancestry. Can you?
- Have you ever been to Ireland? Kissed the Blarney Stone?
- Did your family or friends have St. Patrick's Day traditions?
- Have you ever eaten corned beef and cabbage?
- St. Patrick's Day parades are common all over the country. Have you ever marched in one?

March 2019

It's That Time Again ...

Remember that daylight saving time begins on the second Sunday in March. So move those clocks ahead one hour before you go to bed so you won't be late! If you're grumpy about losing that hour of sleep, keep in mind that daylight saving time is a sign that spring arrives soon! So look forward to longer days filled with sunshine!

"Carol's Corner"

Happy March

This month will be the celebration of St Patrick's Day. We are all Irish on the 17th. On 3/10 we will turn our clocks forward to let us know spring is around the corner. I see we are maintaining a stable staff which is encouraging. It is good to see Brandon back to work. We missed you Brandon!! February we repaired a large water line in the front parking lot. We will still be seeing the courtyard repairs and the lightning rods re attached and hopefully be opening more IL apartments for rent. Enjoy the first look at spring with the flowers blooming and the trees budding.
