

God Knows the Way

Exodus 14

Introduction:

We have all been in situations that felt impossible or were indeed impossible to overcome. Perhaps it was a personal issue that haunted you every waking hour, a financial burden that overwhelmed you or an enemy that showed up everywhere you went. In these kind of moments, you feel trapped and you are not alone. The Bible provides us many accounts of God's people finding themselves in impossible situations. Tonight, we will observe how God marvelously showed up in one such situation when the Israelites were trapped at the Red Sea by the greatest army on earth in that day. You will be encouraged to know that God is still showing up and that man's extremity is merely God's opportunity.

And they did so.
