

WHEATON SEMINARY,
NORTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

April 19, 1904.

My dear Mr. Lincoln:

A letter, received this morning from Mr. Chapin, informs me that he will not be able to be present at the exercises of the evening, and Mr. Wheaton suggests that you take the part, which had been assigned to him, and make the presentation in her name.

I want to say that, before Mr. Brewster made this suggestion, the ~~same~~ thought came in my own mind.

I wish very much that you would accept the place, and I feel sure that it would be gratifying to the trustees and to the other friends of the school for you to do so. It would be eminently fitting in every way. Do not decline.
With kind regards,
Very sincerely,
S. V. Cole
