

Shipping Policy

What do you ship?

Items which are shipped are limited those indicated on each product page. If the item is a physical product, as opposed to a digital download, we will ship the product to the customer.

When do you ship?

Our products are shipped within 24 hours of the order being placed.

Where do you ship to?

We currently offer shipping only within the United States of America. Those living outside of our shipping area may take advantage of our instant digital downloads at a cheaper rate.

How do you ship?

All orders are shipped via the United States Postal Service.

How are the shipping rates calculated?

All shipping charges are calculated by weight (in ounces) of the products being shipped in an order. Pricing begins at $3.72 and is increased incrementally for each increase of 10 ounces.

Can I track an order that's been shipped?

Order usually arrive within three business days of being shipped. Tracking can be provided upon request of the customer, if requested before order has been placed.
