Beanfield primary school ofsted report

How long until the next test? Good schools are tested approximately every four years. We can also check at any time if we have concerns. As a rule, we announced this on the afternoon of the working day before the inspection. We can also inspect schools without notice. Read More, brooke weston trust academies and the municipality continue to work together to reduce the amount of leave taken temporarily by issuing penalty notices under Section 444(1) of the Education Act 1996 (amended regulations 2013). Parents should be aware that as of Monday 25 April, the NCC changed its code of conduct, which meant a penalty notice could be issued with 5 days of absence (10 sessions). It was detained while the Isle of Man's case was heard. As is now known, the NCC immediately implements the Code of Conduct. There is clear evidence that any absence can and will affect their level of achievement. It is therefore important that schools maintain a good number of visits and that parents support it by ensuring that their children regularly attend school. Although parents/guardians can provide explanations for their absence, it is up to the Academy to decide whether the delay will be allowed or disallowed.
