BRIAN BORUTA (Host), a noted performer, director, producer, and designer, has served as The Umbrella's Director of Performing Arts for the past 7 years and pioneered its mission of producing Bold, Daring, and Innovative theatre. Since 2012, his productions have amassed over 150 award nominations including Best Production nods for Glengarry Glen Ross, Equus, Bloody Bloody Andrew Jackson, Red, Angels in America - Millennium Approaches, and Bonnie and Clyde, and a DASH Award for Best Play for True West and To Kill A Mockingbird and Best Musical for Big Fish and Parade.

NANCY CURRAN WILLIS will be honored with this year's Stewardship of the Arts Award for her achievements in Directing. Nancy has directed many Umbrella productions including award-winning Angels in America, Bonnie & Clyde, and Equus, and Glengarry Glen Ross, and most recently helmed its acclaimed production of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time.
