Seasoned Cooks' Debut Books

From a handful of first-time New York authors, a good read for every foodie on your gift list.

BY ROBIN RAISFELD AND ROB PATRONITE

The Meatball Shop Cookbook

by Daniel Holzman and Michael Chernow
(Ballantine Books; $28)

For good or ill, New York has become a meatball town, and with 155 pages devoted to the subject, this is its meatball bible.

Who it's for: Practically everyone, since meatballs, according to the authors, are society's "great equalizer."

Where to put it: Just far enough away from the stove to avoid sauce splatterings.

Make this: Start with the signature beef version and work your way up to the advanced-technique "bunny balls."
