

A large yellow arch bridge, likely the Roberto Clement Bridge in Pittsburgh, dominates the left side of the image. The bridge's massive steel arch and suspension cables are painted a vibrant yellow. In the background, a city skyline is visible under a cloudy sky. The bridge's deck is empty, showing white lane markings. The overall scene is a mix of industrial architecture and urban landscape.

THANK

YOU

FOR SUPPORTING OUR GIVING DAY ♥

Pittsburgh Magazine's

givebig
PITTSBURGH

presented by

GBU  Life®