The Gold Partners Council is made up of leading institutions that recognize, embrace and support the critical importance of humanism in healthcare. Their membership signals to their patients and families, employees and communities their steadfast commitment to compassionate, collaborative, scientifically excellent care. We applaud their leadership in standing with us to put human interests, values and dignity at the forefront of care, and we are grateful for their support in our shared mission. Together, the Gold Partners Council is leading the way in the essential transformation of healthcare to recognize humanism as its core.
