WELCOME TO NYU INTRAMURAL SPORTS AND PROGRAMS

The intramural program at NYU is one of the most popular attractions throughout the university serving over 8,700 students each academic year. NYU Intramurals is here to serve you in meeting the mission statement of the program in providing programming that is safe, fun, social, competitive, and emphasizes the overall well-being and wellness of the NYU community.

The program offers 25-plus sports, activities, fitness programs, events, and adventures over a wide range of recreational, fitness and athletic experience. Diverse offerings such as Intra-Fit, Intra-Run, Rock Climbing, and Powerlift Meets, as well as team sports, such as soccer, basketball, volleyball, cricket, and flag football, are some examples of the programs provided, as well as some of the most attended offerings. Winter and Summer session offerings are also programmed on a limited basis as well. The offerings of sports, events, and activities by the intramural program will differ and vary depending on the semester, on facility availability, and in regards to the current seasonal weather. There are sports and activities for EVERYONE!

In addition to the 404 Fitness Center, the Palladium Athletic Facility, and the Brooklyn Athletic Facility, the Intramural Office uses various locations throughout New York City. Chelsea Piers Sports and Entertainment Complex is one of the most utilized locations. It is located along the Hudson River at West 23rd Street and houses indoor soccer fields as well as ice rinks, roller rinks, and sand volleyball courts. East River Park, Chelsea Waterside Park, and Pier 40 are also popular locations for intramurals sports such as flag football, softball, and soccer. Free transportation is available via shuttle buses and is provided to most locations.

Participants in the program include undergraduate and graduate students. Alumni and other members of the NYU community are eligible for selected programs as well. All skill levels and abilities are welcomed to register (e.g. League divisions based on experience). Prizes are awarded to competition winners and designated achievement winners (i.e. The Amazing 5K Race costume contest winners). With an extremely diverse and global campus that spans many boundaries and borders, it is our goal to offer a unique, inclusive, and engaging program that meets the interest of all and helps in the education and personal development of the NYU student.

All participants in NYU Intramurals acknowledge an assumption of risk of physical/or mental injury by their voluntary participation in the program and all its activities. These types of injuries may be minor or serious and may result from the actions or inactions of themselves or others. Participation in all activities and programs will require a certain level of fitness. All participants are encouraged to have a physical examination and procure health insurance prior to participating.

Safety is our primary concern and we will respond to all injuries within the scope of the hosting site and will notify EMS when incidents are deemed serious by the Intramural Supervisor or Facility Manager, or at the request of the injured participant. All emergency action plans for facilities purposes will defer to the host site.

A. GENERAL – The safety of all participants, staff, and spectators is of the utmost importance and of the greatest concern to NYU Athletics and the Intramural Department. In order to reduce risks, hazards, injuries, accidents, and various cautionary situations, specific policies and procedural guidelines are set in place such as rule modifications, required athletic attire, staff personnel, on-site safety and control, and equipment checks.

E. TOURNAMENT/EVENT FORMATS – Tournament formats vary depending on the type of event and facility availability. Tournaments are operated as single/double elimination, round robin, or divisional playoff formats.
F. FORFEITS – Teams are encouraged to arrive fifteen minutes early for their competition. Teams who do not meet the minimum roster requirement of the league at game time, are given up to five minutes past the scheduled start time, or else, the contest will be deemed forfeit. Further forfeits will be at the discretion of the intramural coordinator on a case-by-case basis. All notifications must be given twenty four hours in advance. Teams will receive a loss, but not a forfeit. Teams receiving their second forfeit will be removed from their respective league/event.
      i. “No-Shows” – Forfeits in which no one from the team appears, commonly referred to as a “no-show” will result in an immediate removed from the league.

After the incident has been discussed with the captains, the officials and/or on-site supervisor will make a fair ruling, and the game will be completed. Protests upheld concerning roster ineligibility should be directed toward the on-site supervisor and then the intramural coordinator.

H. CANCELLATIONS, RESCHEDULING AND GAME DELAY POLICIES – All participants will be notified that games are cancelled via e-mail with the possible follow up of a social media update (usually Twitter). You are allowed to play on only one team per sport/event. Exceptions will be made for participants playing on a men's team or women's team as well as on a Co-Rec team in the same sport.

What does "Co-Rec" mean?

Co-Rec simply means that men AND women participate in the same league, usually with specific restrictions (e.g. minimum amount of men or women on roster or on the field/court).

Open leagues include both men and women WITHOUT any roster or competitive restrictions.

Absolutely! Students who do not have teams are considered "free agents". All free agents can find and join teams who are looking for additional players on IM Leagues, or will be placed on a random team looking for additional players before league play begins.

We take pride in our free agent system and placing others on teams that they will have a great experience. It's a great and exciting way to meet new people here at NYU!

How do I find out when my team is playing?

All scheduled game times, standings, and core information can be seen on your IM Leagues account. Schedules are posted in advance, and are usually updated every Sunday prior to the playing week.

You can also select to request reminders via text, through the app, or by linking the game schedule to your personal Google calendar for convenience.

What is the level of experience in Intramurals?

The range of experience in any given sport or activity can range from former semi-pro or Division I athlete to an individual picking up the sport for the very first time. The majority of participants fall somewhere in between.

Do not be intimidated or disappointed by this! Some leagues offer different divisions for those looking for either competitive or recreational play. And most importantly, the atmosphere and vibe for most intramural games are super supportive and welcoming.

What is the level of commitment for NYU Intramurals?

We expect you to devote your entire being to NYU Intramurals. We're kidding!

You or your team will be scheduled once a week in any given sport or fitness program (twice for those who request it), and games are usually about one hour. Our schedules are very flexible as we value Intramurals being a part of your student experience, wellness and development, NOT the entire thing.

Sports aren’t really my thing. Are there any other ways to stay active through NYU Intramurals?

Absolutely! Besides our traditional sports, we offer an array of fitness programs - we recommend Intra-Fit, Intra-Run, and Rock Wall - as well as popular events such as the Powerlift Meet that offer programs, outlets, and communities for those who prefer their physical activity in other ways away from the courts and fields.

I am interested in working for Intramurals, what should I do?

We appreciate your interest! We work hard, but of course, have tons of fun as a staff, and we hope it reflects in the program we provide.

If you are interested in coming aboard, please see here.
