

Welcome

We're glad you've joined us for worship this morning as we continue Glimpses of Glory, a new summer study of Jesus' miracles.

While you're here, feel free to visit a Bible Fellowship upstairs or get more information about other activities from our Summer Guide, which is available at the Welcome Center or most exits.

If you have any questions, please visit with a member of our Welcome Team in the Main Hall after the service. Again, we're glad you're here!

Family Matters

Please pray for Elaine and Glenn Beck as they grieve the passing of his mother.

HH100

Discussion Questions

- I. If you’ve had a life-changing, personal encounter with Jesus, who are the people around you who you’d want to experience that encounter as well? How can your personal encounter with Jesus be helpful or encouraging to others?
- II. God often leads people away from distraction and out “into the wilderness” so that He can speak more clearly to them. Where can you see God inviting you away from distraction so that He can speak more clearly to you, and so that you can rest in Him?
- III. God doesn’t use formulas for dealing with individual people. No two lives are the same in His eyes. How is He using your unique experiences to shape you right now?
- IV. Perhaps you’ve found yourself frustrated that you weren’t “as far along” as you think you should be in your faith. In what ways do you think God may be working on you—teaching you and growing you—exactly where you are right now?
- V. By contrast, have you ever found yourself in a state of laziness or apathy because you think you’re as mature as you need to be at the moment? Do you believe right now that you still need God every bit as much today as you did when you began your journey of faith? How might God be challenging that notion where you are at this time?
- VI. In Philippians 3:14, Paul wrote of the prize on which he was focused, and which enabled him to endure hardships, knowing that God’s work in him was not yet complete. Where has God given you glimpses of His glory to encourage you and remind you of His greater purposes for your struggles? What reminders can you look to around you right now for that encouragement?

GLIMPSES OF GLORY

Lesson 8: Healed from Blindness (Mark 8:22–26)
Curtis Lindsey, College and Young Adults Pastor

A life of discipleship is an ongoing journey with Jesus.

Our journey with Jesus is...

- a personal encounter
- an individual walk
- a unique experience
- a progressive work
- currently incomplete
- moving to completion

Suggested Prayers:

Monday (personal encounter):
Give me eyes to see who needs to meet Jesus and the opportunities to share what He has done for me.

Tuesday (individual walk):
Help me to rest knowing You know me and care for me.

Wednesday (unique experience):
Show me where I am comparing my experience to others’ and help me to trust Your gracious and creative work in my life.

Thursday (progressive work):
Create in me a greater sense of dependence on You and Your never ending grace.

Friday (currently incomplete):
Bring conviction of my personal pride and develop humility in my heart as I daily depend on Your Spirit.

Saturday (moving to completion):
Keep my heart from becoming apathetic and grow my desire to see You face-to-face.
