

Welcome

We're glad you've joined us for worship this morning as we continue Glimpses of Glory, a new summer study of Jesus' miracles.

While you're here, feel free to visit a Bible Fellowship upstairs or get more information about other activities from our Summer Guide, which is available at the Welcome Center or most exits.

If you have any questions, please visit with a member of our Welcome Team in the Main Hall after the service. Again, we're glad you're here!

India Trip Support

In September, a team from Grace Church will be traveling to Asian Christian Academy near Bangalore, India to work with the children and seminary students there.

If you'd like to invest in the people of ACA by giving toward the cost of the trip and medical supplies, you may designate "India" on a check or online gift. For a list of specific needs, please contact Reggie Coe at the church office.

Stack the Chairs

Please help us prepare for an upcoming event by stacking the chairs (seven high) in the Gymnatorium after the second worship service. Our Building Team appreciates your help!

Discussion Questions

- I. Perhaps, like the woman in the passage, you've experienced lengthy struggles of some kind. As you've approached God in these moments, how concerned have you been with God's commands? How concerned have you been with what "ought" to be done?
- II. When have you found yourself in the position of the synagogue official? Have you ever seen Christians who were serving God and found yourself upset with their methods or approach?
- III. In an effort to honor God, which of his commands do you find yourself going beyond? When have you found yourself looking down on someone because they didn't follow your additional requirements that go beyond what God commanded?
- IV. How might Jesus be challenging your view of the purposes of his commandments? How can you keep God's heart in mind as you seek to balance obedience to God and love for others?
- V. What characteristic best defines the synagogue official and the woman? How do the various ways in which Jesus engages these two individuals encourage us to engage with various types of people? Who are several people in your life that need you to minister to them differently?
