Lesson 8: Grace with Believers

Curtis Lindsey, College & Young Adults Pastor

The grace of God transforms how I relate with fellow believers to be how Christ relates with believers.

I. How God sees me transforms how I see fellow believers.

- Saints, not sinners
- With new hearts, not old hearts
- New creatures, not our old identity
- Forgiven, not condemned
- His children, not strangers

II. 1 Thessalonians 5:14 Now we exhort you, brethren... — how Christ relates with believers transforms how I relate with believers.

A. ...warn those who are unruly... — to believers who are in danger of going astray, we offer the gift of a warm warning.

When have I struggled with unruliness?

Who are those who are struggling with being unruly?

How will I relate with them this week?

B. ...comfort the faint-hearted... — to believers who feel like they can't continue, we offer the gift of genuine care.

When have I struggled with being faint of heart?

Who are those who are struggling with being faint of heart?

How will I relate with them this week?

C. ...uphold the weak... — to believers who are spiritually immature, we offer the gift of committed devotion.

When have I struggled with experiencing weakness?

Who are those struggling with experiencing weakness?

How will I relate with them this week?

D. ...be patient with all. — to believers who are not where we want them to be, we offer the gift of an enduring spirit.

When have I struggled to be who I want to be?

To whom am I struggling to give the extra patience that is required?

How will I relate with them this week?
