Citizens of Two Kingdoms

Reggie Coe, Family Pastor

- I. Heavenly citizenship: As citizens of heaven, our allegiance and our focus are on our relationship with our coming King—Philippians 3:17–21.
  - A. Paul calls us to copy his behavior—Philippians 3:17.
  - B. Many choose to live driven by their selfish interests, opposed to the gospel of Christ—Philippians 3:18–19.
    - 1. They oppose the cross
    - 2. Their end is destruction
    - 3. They are driven by their appetites
    - 4. They revel in shameful things
    - 5. They focus on the things of this world
  - C. As believers, we have a heavenly citizenship that warrants our attention—Philippians 3:19–21.
    - 1. We await the return of our Savior
    - 2. He will transform our bodies from earthly bodies to heavenly bodies
- II. Earthly citizenship: As citizens of this world, we have responsibilities to handle our lives with appropriate honor and respect—1 Peter 2:13–17.
  - A. The Lord directs us to live in this world in a manner that can silence those who would charge believers with insurrection—1 Peter 2:13–15.
  - B. He leads us to use our freedom to serve others—1 Peter 2:16–17.
  - C. He sums up how He wants our life to be characterized:
    - 1. Treat all people with appropriate respect
    - 2. Love other believers
    - 3. Live with reverential awe before the Lord
    - 4. Respond to leaders, respecting the position they occupy
- III. A good example: Daniel had a great balance of living for God’s kingdom while serving a Gentile king—Daniel 6:1–23.
  - A. Daniel held a high position of service to King Darius—Daniel 6:1–3.
  - B. Evil men conspired against Daniel and tricked Darius into signing Daniel’s death warrant—Daniel 6:4–9.
  - C. Daniel continued to worship God and suffered the consequences—Daniel 6:10–18.
  - D. When God delivered Daniel, his first words were “O King live forever!”—Daniel 6:19–23.
