

JOEL

YHWH IS GOD

WELCOME! This morning we're concluding a four-week summer study of the Old Testament book of Joel. Each week we'll dig deeply into a section of this prophetic message that prepared God's people to navigate hard times, reminded them of the past, and ultimately revealed the future. Thank you for joining us in worship!

Takeaways

PROMPTS TO CONSIDER, DISCUSS, AND APPLY WHAT YOU'VE HEARD THIS MORNING

- » How can a longing for justice reveal our pride?
- » How can a longing for justice reveal our woundedness?
- » How does God's judgement offer hope?
- » Where do you try to find hope apart from Jesus?
- » How does the message of Joel remind us of our purpose?
- » Is there someone you consider an enemy that you can pray for?

As summer winds down and we look toward a new Fall season together, you are invited to join us for three special Wednesday nights. First we'll worship together through song, prayer, and Scripture reading, then we'll spend two nights lifting up our people, ministries, and building to the Lord in prayer.

- » THIS WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20: Everyone is welcome in the chapel at this night of worship designed for the entire family. Sing along with the musicians in our church as they lead, then spend time considering the words of Scripture and praying together with others. 6:30 PM
- » WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27: Women meet in the chapel then spread out across our campus in groups to pray for the Fall semester. 6:30 PM
- » WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3: Men team up to cover our campus in prayer, starting in the chapel and moving out from there. 6:30 PM
