

WELCOME! This morning we're continuing a summer study of faithful examples in Scripture who modeled a life of faith, chose to act upon God's direction, and trusted in His provision. Each week, we'll look at a different person and discover how their story can help shape us today. Thank you for joining us in worship!

Tuesday Studies begin July 8

We have set aside Tuesdays as a time for different adult Bible study groups to meet on campus throughout the day, study Scripture together, and discuss its application to our lives. Here are the three time slots available for you to consider this summer — we'd love for you to join us! All groups enter through Door N1.

» MEN'S STUDY | 6:00–7:00 AM | ROOM 210 | THE TRINITY

This study offers the opportunity to dig deeply into God's Word with a group of men, hear their personal stories, and learn biblical principles you can apply in your own walk with Jesus Christ. This summer we will explore the concept and implications of the Trinity, in which God eternally exists in community with Himself.

» WOMEN'S STUDY | 10:00–11:30 AM | ROOM 208 | FAITH STORIES

Be encouraged by the faith stories of other women. See what God's Word has to say as we lay the story of Scripture alongside our own. Gain insight as we share together about how God is at work in our lives.

Child care available by reservation when signing up.

» SENIOR ADULT STUDY | 1:00–2:30 PM | ROOM 206 | NAMES OF GOD

Join us for this weekly opportunity to dig deeply into Scripture, share from your own personal experiences, and continue to grow deeper in your own walk with the Lord. This summer we'll study many of the names of God used in Scripture, examine their meanings, and discover what they can tell us about His character.
