

Senior High Noah's Ark Trip

Our students and leaders will travel to Buena Vista, Colorado again this summer, where they will have the chance to navigate an adventure park, raft the white-water rapids, and backpack through the backcountry of the mountains. The trip will be led by our youth staff and multiple highly trained guides. Noah's Ark supplies all the necessary camping and outdoor gear. The base cost is $525 per student, and registration is open today through March 1. Contact curtis@gracechurch.com for more information.

Do You Know Someone Homebound?

Part of our ongoing commitment to those in our church family is to come alongside them when they can no longer participate in our programs due to declining health or advancing age. If you are aware of anyone we can reach out to, please let us know by sending their information to valerie@gracechurch.com or by calling 940-692-4251.

Jamaica Deaf Village Trip

The Jamaican environment provides a team-building experience like no other. This year's trip will be July 11–18, and registration opens today. You can get all the details or sign up at our table in the Main Hall this morning! Contact leah@gracechurch.com for more information.

Family Matters

Congratulations to Audrey and Brady Leach on the birth of their daughter Lynn Ora.

Senior high students are invited to join us as we brave the Colorado rapids and conquer the mountains during this three-day backpacking trip. June 22–27

ONE WAY TO SERVE

Do you have an interest in coming alongside those who can no longer be physically present with their Grace Church family due to declining health or advancing age? You can be part of a team of people who visit those who are homebound or in nursing facilities.

If you are interested in serving our church family in this way, please contact Valerie Rhine at 940-692-4251 or by email at valerie@gracechurch.com.

THE CORINTHIAN CONUNDRUM

Lesson 6: Adopting Godly Perspective (1 Corinthians 3:18–4:5)

Reggie Coe, Family Pastor

- I. God's perspective of worldly wisdom: The Lord sees the futile nature of man's wisdom and calls us to embrace His viewpoint with humility—1 Corinthians 3:18–23.
 - A. Apart from God's wisdom we live self-deceived lives—1 Corinthians 3:18.
 - The path of God's wisdom involves admitting that we can deceive ourselves.
 - The path of God's wisdom begins with humility by acknowledging that innately we do not see things from God's perspective.
 - B. God views human wisdom as foolish and empty—1 Corinthians 3:19–20.
 - He entraps the arrogant wise person in his own self-centered foolishness—1 Corinthians 3:19; see Matthew 22:15–22.
 - He understands that the inner dialogue of the so-called wise man is unsubstantial, absurd, and useless—1 Corinthians 3:20.
 - C. Rather than glorying in people, the Lord calls us to give our praise to the One who has given us all things—1 Corinthians 3:21–22.
 - D. One important perspective involves understanding that as Christians we belong to Christ and Christ belongs to God—1 Corinthians 3:23.
- II. God's perspective of His servants: Those who serve God answer to Him and He alone sees clearly enough to evaluate our motives and ministries—1 Corinthians 4:1–5.
 - A. Paul understood that he had been entrusted with a position of service and responsibility to present God's truth that had been hidden in the past—1 Corinthians 4:1.
 - B. The responsibility of a steward is to faithfully carry out the ministry that the Lord entrusted to that person—1 Corinthians 4:2.
 - C. Only the Lord can rightly evaluate our lives and our service to Him—1 Corinthians 4:3–4.
 - D. As His servants each of us will be evaluated at the judgment seat of Christ—1 Corinthians 4:5.
