

WORSHIP

WELCOME! In this Sunday morning series, we're exploring the meaning, purpose, and actions involved in worship — our response to who God is, His presence, and what He has done. During these three weeks, you'll have special opportunities to consider, participate, and respond. We're glad you've joined us in worship today!

Takeaways

PROMPTS TO CONSIDER, DISCUSS, AND APPLY WHAT YOU'VE HEARD THIS MORNING

- » How would you define worship?
- » What qualities or actions of God prompt a response of worship in you?
- » Where do you see God at work in your life?
- » What aspects of worship come most naturally to you?
- » What are some ways of worship that you might not have considered?
- » How does our collective worship impact our faith?

As we begin our Sunday morning study of worship, you are invited to put it into practice in a special way this Wednesday evening in the Chapel. We'll spend our time worshipping together through song, reading Scripture, adoring the Lord, giving thanks, and walking our campus in prayer.

- » WHO: Anyone in our church family, plus friends and neighbors!
Nursery care is available for little ones, if needed.
- » WHERE: Gather in the Chapel (at the East end of the Main Hall).
- » WHEN: This Wednesday, August 5 at 6:30 PM until 8:00 PM.

We'll be asking the Lord to lead us forward together in unity, and to prepare our hearts and facilities for the entire season of Fall ministries that start next month. Elders and others will be available to pray with you for specific needs you have.
